REPORT NARRATIVE

SYNOPSIS:

On 10/24/2024 at approximately 2318 hours, Marcus Evans racked the slide of a semi-automatic handgun and pointed it at [redacted] and [redacted] in the cul-de-sac in front of 6461 Duluth Avenue, San Diego 92114. This occurred as a result of [redacted] and [redacted] intervening in a domestic violence altercation between Evans and his ex-girlfriend, [redacted] During the domestic altercation, a verbal argument escalated, and Evans pushed and struck [redacted]

When Evan's was contacted by officers, he was non-compliant. For approximately 15 minutes, Evans defied officers' orders to show his hands and surrender. After multiple commands and canine warnings, Evans was impacted with a less lethal beanbag shotgun and apprehended with the assistance of a SDPD canine.

Evans was placed under arrest for two counts of 245(a)(2) PC - Assault with Firearm on Person, one count of 243(e)(1) PC - Battery: Spouse/Ex-Spouse, and one count of 148(a)(1) PC - Obstruct/Resist Peace Officer.
Evans was transported to UCSD East Campus for medical treatment and jail clearance.

At the time of this report, Evans was still at the hospital.

ORIGIN:

On 10/24/2025 I was on patrol in the City of San Diego. I was wearing full police uniform and driving a marked patrol vehicle. At approximately 2318 hours, I responded to a radio call at 6461 Duluth Avenue, San Diego 92114 for an individual who was threatening others with a firearm. The reporting party, later identified via her California driver's license as [redacted] stated that a male had produced a handgun and "racked it." [redacted] also stated that a female at the location named [redacted] had been beat up by her ex-boyfriend.

BACKGROUND:

Marcus Evans and [redacted] were in a dating relationship. They do not share any children in common. [redacted] confirmed she had been in a dating relationship with Evans, but refused to provide any further details regarding when and for how long.

Please see Officer Johnson's #1644 ARJIS-9 for statement of [redacted]

Paraphrased Statement of [redacted] (Victim):

I was on Facetime with [redacted] and she had a verbal argument with Marcus. They were yelling and screaming. I saw him beat her with some kind of pole or crowbar. My sister [redacted] came and picked me up so we could go help [redacted] When we drove up to 6461 Duluth Avenue, the garage was closed. [redacted] was in the garage. We were still on the phone. [redacted] opened the garage to come out to us, but then Marcus held her back by her shirt. He let her go and started bringing some of her stuff out to put in the car. He started talking shit to her, and then to me. We all got in a tussle on the hood of the car. I fell down. I tried getting in between [redacted] and Marcus. I heard him rack a gun. I saw it was a handgun. My sister saw him point it at us, and then we got [redacted] in the car and came here where we saw police.

///End of Statement///

I asked [redacted] if she had any injuries. She stated she did not and refused medical attention.

Based on the statements made by [redacted] and [redacted] officers determined Evans was in violation of 245(a)(2) PC - Assault with a Firearm on Person, and 243(e)(1) PC - Battery on Spouse/Ex-Spouse.

A contact team of SDPD patrol officers and canine officers was assembled and a plan created to contact Evans. Officers conducted a contain and callout at the residence. Evans exited the residence and was non-compliant. Evans was told that he was under arrest. Evens refused officer's commands to keep his hands visible and walk towards officers. Evans protested officer's directions and said that it was his house, and he was not going to comply with officer's orders. For approximately 15 minutes, Evans continued to defy officer's orders to show his hands and surrender. After multiple commands and canine warnings, he was impacted three times with a less lethal beanbag shotgun and apprehended with a canine.

Evans was placed under arrest and additionally charged with 148(a)(1) PC - Obstruct/Resist Peace Officer.

Please see canine Sergeant Dyemartin's #6642, canine Officer Nelson's #7443, Officer Pouchie's #1910, Officer Kim's #1611, Officer Castillo's #7875, ARJIS-9s for further details.

Officer Pouchie transported Evans to UCSD East Campus Hospital for treatment and jail clearance.

I took photographs of [redacted]

I provided [redacted] a copy of her signed domestic violence advisal sheet.

I provided [redacted] and [redacted] with a Marsy's card and case number.

A RIPA was submitted for the arrest of Evans.

My body worn camera was on and recording.

REPORT NARRATIVE

On 10/25/2024, at approximately 0018 hours, I was on duty wearing a full police uniform and driving a marked patrol vehicle when I responded to a radio call about a male subject pointing a handgun and racking the slide at a female at 431 Detroit Place in the City of San Diego.

Prior to arrival, contacting officers had initiated a high-risk pedestrian stop at 6461 Duluth Avenue. The male subject later identified himself as Marcus Evans (DOB 03/23/1993). The primary contacting officer parked his patrol vehicle to take cover. The patrol vehicle was facing south from the target address. Officers were on the driver's side of the vehicle when they initiated the contact with Evans.

Upon arrival, I saw multiple officers contacting Evans at the front of his residence at [redacted] I was directed by A/Sgt Sullivan #6455 to assist officers in taking Evans into custody. I was part of a hands team. During this time, Evans was uncooperative, and he refused to follow simple directions.

Evans was impacted by a bean bag shotgun; he ultimately got on the ground. Officers moved to the passenger side of the vehicle to have a better view of Evans. I took out my department-issued handgun and I had my handgun low ready during this time. The canine officer deployed his partner canine, and officers and I moved up to Evans to take him into custody. Officers grabbed Evans' both hands and I assisted by placing handcuffs on Evans. I patted Evans for weapons purposes. I rolled Evans to his left side, and I assisted Evans in standing up. Evans refused to stand up and walk to my patrol car. Officer Castillo #7875 held Evans' left arm and I was holding him under his right armpit to lift Evans. Officer Castillo and I carried Evans under his armpit to my patrol vehicle to safely continue the investigation.

Evans was ultimately placed in the backseat of the patrol vehicle. While I was waiting at the patrol vehicle, I spoke to [redacted] Evans who essentially told me he was sleeping in his room. During this time, I was directed by A/Sgt Christman #7711 to assist officers in safely sweeping the residence. I took out my department-issued handgun while I was clearing the house.

Prior to leaving the scene, I took photographs of beanbags, beanbag shell casings, and the scene and I later uploaded them on Evidence.com under event #24100036129. I also collected the beanbag rounds and I later impounded them at the Southeastern Division Property Room under barcode # 11540346. I collected the beanbag casings and I later impounded them at the Southeastern Division Property Room under barcode # 11540348.

My BWC was activated during the investigation. BLUE TEAM was submitted.

INDIVIDUAL/S

ORIGIN:

On October 24, 2024, at approximately 2318 hours, I was in full police uniform and driving a marked patrol vehicle. I am assigned to the Canine Unit, and I had my Police Service Dog (PSD), Tito. (#C-1313) with me. I responded to a radio call for a male threatening a female with a firearm near 431 Detroit Place, San Diego.

OFFICER'S STATEMENT:

Southeastern Division officers contacted the reporting parties and determined a male, positively identified as Marcus EVANS via previous booking photos, had pointed a firearm at two people in a threatening manner. The reporting party described EVANS' actions to include pointing a firearm and racking the slide, presumably to chamber a round. The reporting party and victims drove away from the location and met officers staging on Skyline Drive. Officers advised there was probable cause to arrest EVANS for two counts of assault with a firearm. The San Diego Police Air Support Unit helicopter (ABLE) assisted with watching EVANS' residence, identified as [redacted], while a contact team was created. A full perimeter was established, including officers and other canine teams along South 65th Street and inside of MLK Jr. Park. There was a serious concern for the safety of others and officers if EVANS was allowed to leave the residence armed. ABLE observed a male believed to be EVANS, shirtless and wearing dark basketball shorts, walking between a detached garage and main residence multiple times.

During the staging and planning phase, officers were able to identify EVANS from prior contacts. I viewed a previous booking photo of him. I was made aware that EVANS had multiple prior arrests, [redacted]. Officers were staged for nearly an hour, creating a plan to safely contact the residence and de-escalate any possible resistance. The plan included my vehicle in the front with a ballistic shield, my PSD, a beanbag shotgun Kinetic Energy Weapon (KEW) and lethal cover. The plan was to conduct a contain and call out plan, ordering EVANS and all other residents out of the property.

At approximately 0009 hours on the 25th, the contact team moved forward to the residence. ABLE observed EVANS walking from the garage to the front of the main residence. I was driving the lead vehicle, placing a ballistic shield on my windshield in the event EVANS attempted to shoot at my vehicle while approaching. I observed EVANS, still shirtless and wearing dark basketball shorts, walk into the front door. As I stopped my vehicle, EVANS slammed a security screen door closed.

The residence was on a hill with a concrete stairway below the front door that led to the street. There were multiple windows facing the street. The layout of the property provided EVANS and other occupants the high ground position of advantage in comparison to our contact team. Using my patrol vehicle as cover, the contact team attempted to call out EVANS from the residence. I deployed my PSD, Tito, on the driver side of my vehicle.

I observed movement from the north facing windows, including the moving of curtains and blinds. As I began verbal call outs, the movement continued. I identified myself as San Diego Police and gave multiple canine warnings. The canine warnings were to the effect of, "San Diego Police, Marcus Evans, exit the residence with nothing in your hands. If you do not exit or attempt to flee, a police dog will be sent, and you will be bitten." I gave multiple canine warnings, yelling loudly. I gave orders for all residents to exit but continued to give warnings directly to EVANS. Officers on the rear perimeter positions advised they could hear my warnings from their positions.

A shirtless male exited the residence and was cooperative with my commands. The male was identified as not being the suspect, EVANS. I continued call outs to exit. Two additional people, a male and female, exited the residence. Both were compliant and were detained without any incident.

At approximately 0015 hours, EVANS exited the residence. EVANS was wearing black basketball style shorts, no shirt, and no shoes. EVANS matched the photo previously shown to me and I also confirmed with other officers on scene that the fourth male was in fact EVANS. I gave EVANS clear instructions to show me his hands and to walk down the stairs. EVANS initially followed my commands, walking to the bottom of the staircase.

Once at the bottom, EVANS became uncooperative. I order EVANS to turn around, facing away from the contact team. I had previously given the same commands to the other occupants. All prior occupants complied with those orders and were guided back to the contact team.

EVANS stood at the foot of the staircase and began yelling that he did not have to listen to my commands and that he was at his own residence. I attempted to deescalate by asking his name and giving him further details as to why we were at the residence. I told EVANS he was detained pending the investigation, stating we received a radio call of a felony offense including a firearm. EVANS was argumentative and uncooperative, stating he had done nothing wrong.

During the contact, EVANS' face had a glazed over appearance and he was slurring his speech. I believed EVANS could have been under the influence of alcohol or controlled substances. I know both have effects on the human body that can cause irrational and unpredictable behaviors.

I continued to give verbal commands to EVANS. I believed EVANS to be armed and dangerous. EVANS had not been patted down or searched for any weapons. EVANS had been seen walking to and from the garage and it was unknown where the firearm was located. In addition, EVANS was near a retaining wall and parked vehicle that could easily conceal any weapons from the contact team. If EVANS was allowed to flee out of view or back into the house, I feared he would retrieve the firearm and fire upon our position.

While contacting EVANS, an older male began to exit the residence. EVANS began communicating with the male, referring to him as, "Unc." At the time, the contact team ordered the other male to remain in the residence as we continued to negotiate with EVANS. This however caused great concern to me, confirming there were still an unknown number of occupants still in the residence. While our attention was focused on EVANS, it was possible an accomplice or family member could fire upon us to free or prevent the arrest of EVANS. The rapidly evolving and dynamic situation caused more exigency to safely detain EVANS versus if he was confirmed the only occupant in the direct area.

After multiple attempts to de-escalate with verbal commands and the presence of our contact team, EVANS continued to actively resist arrest while being armed. At approximately 0020 hours, the contact team deployed a KEW beanbag round to gain compliance from EVANS.

EVANS fell to the ground following the beanbag deployment. My view became obstructed by the parked vehicle in the driveway. I moved my position with my PSD to the passenger side of the patrol car. EVANS refused to surrender or comply with commands. I could see his hands were empty as he held them near his head. I could not see his rear waist or anything past the parked vehicle and retaining wall. After gaining no compliance in my attempt to give him orders, other officers began giving warnings to EVANS. I maintained my position with my PSD.

At approximately 0028 hours, EVANS sat up and faced the team. He still refused to walk back to officers or comply with any commands. EVANS became more agitated began to posture towards standing back up. The initial effects of the first KEW round appeared to wear off and EVANS became more confrontational. He sat up with his back facing the retaining wall. A plan was established to utilize a second beanbag KEW round in conjunction with my PSD to apprehend EVANS. I deployed my PSD on his bite command for the following reasons:

SEVERITY OF THE CRIME:

There was probable cause to arrest EVANS for felony assault with a deadly weapon, firearm, against two people.

IMMEDIACY OF THE THREAT:

EVANS was believed to be armed or near a firearm. EVANS was wanted for a violent felony and refused to comply while outside of the residence. If allowed to flee or return to the residence, EVANS could fire upon officers, occupants of the residence, or other citizens that were gathering in the neighborhood due to the large police presence. It was determined EVANS had a domestic relationship to one of the victims, causing further exigency to arrest EVANS to prevent further domestic violence against the victim.

ACTIVE RESISTANCE:

EVANS refused to follow verbal commands for ten minutes, remaining at the foot of the residence. EVANS refused to walk back to officers and away from any potential concealed weapons. EVANS had already been impacted with a KEW round and refused to surrender.

Assisting officers deployed a second beanbag KEW round to distract EVANS while my PSD was sent on his bite command. This was done specifically to give the dog the opportunity to reach EVANS before a weapon could be pulled, possibly causing the injury or death of my PSD. EVANS was impacted at the same time I gave the bite command. EVANS had his hands in front of him, however remained defiant. As my PSD approached EVANS, he pushed his left forearm out to fend off my PSD. My PSD engaged EVANS on his left forearm. For reasons unknown, my PSD failed to remain engaged with EVANS.

Despite having been impacted by a second KEW round, and the brief engagement with my PSD, EVANS refused to surrender. Based on EVANS continued active resistance and defiance towards the contact team, I did not feel safe having the contact team move forward without the PSD actively engaged with EVANS. For these reasons, I recalled my PSD to my location and called for a second PSD.

Canine Sergeant Dyemartin deployed his PSD. I transitioned my role to lethal cover and as part of the arrest team to support Sgt. Dyemartin.

The second PSD was deployed to apprehend EVANS along with a third KEW beanbag round. Canine Sgt. Dyemartin's PSD successfully apprehended EVANS. See his report for further.

The contact team moved up, maintaining lethal cover on the house. I pointed my firearm at EVANS as we approached in the safest manner possible. Once we reached his position, I holstered my firearm and immediately grabbed EVANS' right arm. I pulled EVANS onto his stomach, pulling his right arm back and forcing his right shoulder down. I placed my knee briefly on his right shoulder to maintain control of his torso. As other officers held EVANS' torso, I relieved pressure from my knee off his shoulder. Assisting officers placed handcuffs on his right wrist.

As part of the canine unit, I carry an "Out Stick." It is a metal bar with a ball on the end. It is used to induce a gag or relaxing of the mouth on a PSD as a form of removal from a bite. Once officers had control of the right arm, I assisted Canine Sgt. Dyemartin by placing my out stick in his PSD's mouth, assisting in removing the PSD from EVANS' left forearm. Officers placed handcuffs on EVANS's left wrist. I called for officers to do a weapons pat before moving EVANS from the front of the house. No weapons were located directly on his person.

The arrest team retreated to the patrol vehicles with EVANS. I assisted with conducting more verbal call outs to the remaining occupants using my Public Address (PA) system. A total of three more residents exited the location. All three complied with commands and were safely detained without any force.

I assisted with the safety clearing of the residence and detached garage. No other occupants were located inside.

My BWC was on and recording during the incident.

REPORT NARRATIVE

On 10/24/2024 at approximately 2318 hours, I was in full police uniform and driving a marked patrol vehicle in the city of San Diego when I responded to a radio call regarding a male with a gun at 431 Detroit Place, San Diego.

I arrived at 6400 Skyline Drive and began speaking with the reporting party, later identified as [redacted] by her California Driver License. She advised that she drove to [redacted] Duluth Avenue with her sister after receiving a call from their friend who was actively involved in a domestic physical altercation. During the incident, [redacted] stated the male, later identified as MARCUS EVANS from a prior booking photo, pointed a gun at her and cocked the slide back chambering a bullet. I took the following statement.

Statement from [redacted] (Reporting Party/Victim):

[redacted] essentially told me the following:

My sister, [redacted] called me telling me to pick her up because her friend [redacted] [redacted] was involved in a physical fight with her boyfriend MARCUS EVANS. [redacted] was on facetime with [redacted] when she witnessed EVANS hitting her with a crowbar or like a metal pole. I didn't witness the physical altercation myself, my sister just told me. I came from 47th street and picked up [redacted] and began driving over to their address at [redacted] Duluth Avenue. When I got there, we parked and stood in the middle of the cul-de-sac trying to get [redacted] to come out and leave with us. I saw EVANS about 40 feet from me standing in the garage point a handgun towards me and cock the slide back. I saw it and heard the noise of the slide. The handgun was chromed that's why I was able to see it in the dark. I couldn't get a full look at it because it was far and dark. I just wanted to get out of there.

He pointed it at me and my sister. I moved and began yelling at [redacted] to hurry and come to the car. [redacted] eventually came out and walked around to the right side of my car and tried getting inside. EVANS followed and was preventing her from leaving. I didn't see the gun anymore after he pointed it at me and my sister. My sister was getting in between EVANS and [redacted] to try and separate them. EVANS was grabbing [redacted] t keep her from leaving. I began yelling at EVANS to get off my sister because he was starting to grab onto her. [redacted] began telling us to just leave and that she would stay but I told her that I already called the police and that we needed to go. That's why I think EVANS ran back inside the house.

We finally got in the car and began driving away until I got flagged down by an officer who told me to park over here. I don't know what happened with the gun, but I know the sounds it made when he cocked the slide back and I can tell it was a gun. I don't know anything about her boyfriend, this is the first time I have ever seen him.

I don't know his name, but he is a light skinned male, about 30 years old, 5'8, weighting about 120 pounds, wearing no shirt, black shorts and sandals.

End of statement.

After speaking with [redacted] I followed up with checking [redacted] for possible injuries based off [redacted] statements that she was possibly assaulted with a weapon. I did not locate any injuries on [redacted] who was uncooperative with providing an information regarding the incident.

Officer Burns #1948 spoke with [redacted] who witnessed the facetime incident and heard the cocking of the firearm as well. See her arrest report for further details.

Based on [redacted] statement, MARCUS EVANS in in violation of 245(a)(2) PC - Assault with a deadly weapon with a firearm and 243(e)(1) PC - Domestic battery.

Officers conducted a plan and ultimately got EVANS in custody. While standing by [redacted] she made spontaneous statements admitting she was in a physical altercation with EVANS who rushed her and she proceeded to push him off and kick him away prior to the arrival of [redacted] and her sister.

I conducted a follow up to UCSD East Campus due to injuries EVANS sustained during the incident and took custody until I was relieved of my duty.

That concludes my involvement in the investigation.

INDIVIDUAL/S

REPORT NARRATIVE

On 10/25/2024 at approximately 2318 hours, I was in full police uniform driving a marked SDPD police vehicle when I responded to a radio call detailing a male, later identified as MARCUS EVANS (CA DL# [redacted] DOB: 3/23/1993) wanted for assault with a deadly weapon with a firearm at [redacted] Duluth Ave in San Diego, CA 92114.

While en route to the radio call, SDPD ABLE (Airborne Law Enforcement) was assisting officers and updated officers on scene that the individual [Evans] was outside the residence hitting the front door. EVANS was described as a black male adult with no shirt and black basketball shorts. Officers were advised many individuals other than EVANS were inside the residence.

I arrived on scene and was assigned to be less-lethal coverage with the beanbag shotgun.

The bean-bag shotgun was patrol ready, which was verified. A high risk pedestrian stop was initiated on Evans in front of [redacted] Duluth Ave in San Diego. EVANS quickly retreated inside the residence and closed the front door as soon as officer arrived on scene. I parked my vehicle to the left of K-9's vehicle, grabbed the less-lethal beanbag shotgun and walked to the right side of the vehicle, positioned myself facing the front door of the residence, and pointed the bean bag shotgun in the direction of the front door.

The residence had an inclined driveway with a staircase that led to the front door.

Multiple individuals began to exit the residence and followed officers' commands. These individuals were safely moved away from the residence.

EVANS presented himself at the front door and initially followed officers' commands to place his hands over his head and walk down the stairs. When officers asked EVANS to keep his hands over his head, he refused and kept bringing his hands down from above his head. EVANS made movements towards his waist band. Officers commanded EVANS to face away from officers and walk backwards, but EVANS refused and sat down on the lower step of the residence, approximately 25 feet away from police. EVANS continued to move around and place his hands where I could not see them. EVANS continued to be uncooperative with officer commands and refused to show officers his complete waistband, so it was still unconfirmed if EVANS was armed with a weapon.

I moved my position to be on the left side of the vehicle, positioned myself to face EVANS and pointed my beanbag shotgun at his person. I aimed at EVANS'S lower right torso area and fired my beanbag as a compliance check after being directed to by a supervisor on-scene. The beanbag round hit EVANS in the lower right torso, as aimed and planned. EVANS dropped to the ground. EVANS continued to be uncompliant with officers' commands. EVANS used foul language and refused to crawl or walk back to officers.

In concurrence with K-9 release, I aimed my beanbag shotgun at EVANS'S left arm in his bicep area and fired another round. The beanbag hit EVANS in his left arm and the K-9 was sent. K-9 did not bite. The initial K-9 was removed, and a secondary K-9 was introduced.

EVANS continued to lay on the ground and refuse to show his hands. EVANS continued to curse at officers and refuse all officer commands.

Officers took EVANS into custody and EVANS was placed in the backseat of my patrol vehicle. I transported EVANS to UCSD East, where he was evaluated by medical professionals.

This concluded my involvement in the investigation. Please see Officer Burns #1948 for further details.

REPORT NARRATIVE

On Thursday October 24, 2024, at about 2347 hours, Officer Esambolchi (ID #1087) and I were assigned to Southeastern Patrol when we responded to assist with a criminal investigation at 6461 Duluth Avenue in the City of San Diego. Prior to our arrival, I learned through my police radio that the suspect had assaulted two people with a firearm. The suspect was named Marcus and was wearing basketball shorts with no shirt.

We arrived on scene in a marked San Diego Police vehicle, wearing a complete police uniform, and with my body worn camera activated. Upon arrival, I approached the residence where officers were contacting a male by the front stairs who matched the suspect description. My role during this time was to assist officers on scene by taking the suspect into custody.

When next to the police car, I heard one of the K9 officer call out to Marcus ordering him to crawl towards us. Marcus was informed he would be provided with medical attention and help. At this point I was standing directly behind the K9 officers next to the front passenger seat. Marcus was given a warning that if he didn't comply, he would be impacted again (by a bean bag), and bit by a police dog. Marcus was also informed he was under arrest. About 6 minutes later from when we positioned ourselves next to the front passenger seat, and after giving Marcus multiple opportunities to surrender, a bean bag munition was deployed and the police service dog was sent to apprehend Marcus. We then moved towards Marcus to take him into custody.

I held Marcus from the lower back portion of his head with my left hand using minimal force in order to control his head. I also held him from his left tricep with my right hand to place him in handcuffs. I transitioned to holding his right wrist while my left hand still held onto the lower back of Marcus' head. Officer Kim (ID #1611) then placed handcuffs on the suspect.

We moved Marcus towards the rear of a police car for safety reasons, and for his arrest, as officers were going to clear the residence. When I moved Marcus, I could feel his weight pulling down and not wanting to walk on his own. I carried Marcus from his left arm while Officer Kim picked him up from the opposite side, and we moved him into the back seat of a police car. Marcus was not standing up and entering the police car. Therefore, I picked him up again from his left arm and moved Marcus into the back seat. Other officers completed placing Marcus into the car.

While enroute, I spoke to a domestic violence detective, Anthony Duncan #7553 and he instructed me to inform Officers' at the hosptial to release Marcus Evans at the hospital (849b).

I later informed Officers' K. Luangamath and S. Truong (433K1) via telephonic, and at 1424 hours, they released Marcus Evans to the care of medical professionals at Scripps Mercy Hilcrest room 1029. Marcus Evans medical record number (MRN) was [redacted]

REPORT NARRATIVE

On 10/24/2024, at approximately 2347 hours, Officer I. Castillo #7875 and I responded to a radio call of a threatening with weapon hot call at 6461 Duluth Ave. We were in full police uniform in a marked patrol vehicle.

Prior to my arrival on scene, I learned through my police radio a valid assault with deadly weapon (firearm) had occurred. The notes on the radio call mentioned the suspect was named Marcus Evans. The suspect was described as a black male adult, wearing no shirt, and black shorts.

Upon my arrival on scene, officers were on the driver's side of a patrol vehicle and were contacting a male who was standing in front of a set of stairs (which was located in front of the residence). The male was a black male adult, wearing no shirt, and shorts. The male matched the description of the suspect on the radio call. The male was later identified as Marcus Evans (DOB: 03/23/1993). A contact team was in place which included a less lethal beanbag, K9, and a lethal element. My role during this was to be the hands element of the contact team and assist officers in taking Evans into custody. Officers gave Evans several verbal commands, however; Evans was non-compliant with officer's commands. Evans was ultimately impacted by a less lethal beanbag shotgun. See Officer Pouchie's officer report for details.

The contact team (lethal, less lethal beanbag shotgun, and K9) moved to the passenger side of the patrol vehicle. Based on Evans being the suspect of an assault with deadly weapon (firearm), I believed him to be armed and dangerous. I unholstered my handgun and pointed it at Evans. Evans was still being non-compliant with officers' commands. Evans was impacted by a less lethal beanbag shotgun round for a second time. The police service dog was also sent to apprehend Evans. The contact team moved from the passenger side of the patrol vehicle and approached Evans. I was at the driver's side of the patrol vehicle, and I approached the residence and provided lethal coverage (for the officers taking Evans into custody) in the direction of the residence. After Evans was taken into custody, I retreated to the patrol car. Officers conducted call-outs on the residence and three individuals exited from the residence. Due to a firearm being outstanding, during this I had my firearm held at the low ready position. The three individuals who exited the residence were cooperative with officer's commands.

I later took a perimeter position on the northeast corner of a single detached garage on the property. I later assisted in clearing the interior of the detached garage.

This concluded my involvement in this incident. See Officer Burns' #1948 arrest report for details.

REPORT NARRATIVE

OFFICER'S STATEMENT:

On Thursday, October 24, 2024 at 2318 hours, I was dispatched to 6461 Duluth Avenue in the City of San Diego to assist with an assault with a deadly weapon (firearm) radio call where the suspect pointed a firearm at the reporting party/victim. I was on duty, wearing my San Diego Police Department patrol uniform and driving a marked patrol vehicle.

The suspect was later identified as MARCUS GLENN DERRELL EVANS (Date of Birth: 03/23/1993) from a previous booking photograph.

I arrived on scene and retrieved my department issued rifle because the EVANS was seen with a firearm and threatened someone with a firearm.

A plan was formulated, and an arrest team was created to take EVANS into custody. Officers moved forward and staged in front of the residence to conduct callouts. Officers conducted callouts for EVANS to come out of his residence at 6461 Duluth Avenue. Once EVANS exited the residence. A high-risk pedestrian stop was initiated because the violent nature of the radio call and it was undetermined if EVANS still had the firearm hidden in his shorts. I pointed my rifle at EVANS as lethal coverage to protect myself and the officers around me. EVANS did not comply with officers' commands to peacefully surrender and was impacted with a bean bag shotgun and bitten by a police service dog. While less lethal tactics were deployed on EVANS, I maintained my lethal coverage on EVANS with my rifle until he was taken into custody and placed into handcuffs.

I assisted with clearing the residence making sure there were no other victim(s) or suspect(s) inside the residence.

Once the residence was cleared, I immediately left the scene while the investigation was still on going to assist in a high priority radio call.

INDIVIDUAL/S

REPORT NARRATIVE

Officer's Statement:

On 10/24/24, at approximately 2318 hours, Southeastern Division officers responded to a radio call of a male pointing a firearm at a female at 6461 Duluth Ave. I am currently assigned to the San Diego Police Department Canine Unit with Police Service Dog (PSD) Seff #C-1323. I responded to the call to assist while wearing a full police uniform and driving a marked patrol car.

I arrived on the scene first and stagged on Skyline Drive, away from the target location. While waiting for additional cover units, the reporting party, [redacted] and the victim, [redacted] drove out of the cul-de-sac and parked on Skyline Drive. Before I approached them to get more information, another female, later identified as [redacted] approached their car and entered the backseat. [redacted] was still on the phone with dispatch, and I asked, via the radio, for [redacted] to drive over to me so I could speak to all three females.

I briefly spoke to [redacted] and [redacted] before I was relieved by patrol officers. At the time [redacted] was uncooperative with my questions, but [redacted] told me she saw [redacted] ex-boyfriend, later identified as Marcus Evans, point a gun at herself and [redacted] stated Evans "Cocked the hammer" while he was pointing it at her.

A patrol officer arrived and took [redacted] and [redacted] full statements. The investigating officer determined enough probable cause existed to arrest Evans for two counts of assault with a deadly weapon. While officers were interviewing the victims, the police helicopter (ABLE) was watching Evans' house. While ABLE watched, they stated several times that they saw a Black male going to the main house from the garage, which is detached from the home. The officers interviewing the female victims informed me that Evans lives in the detached garage but that he has access to the entire main house. [redacted] and [redacted] described Evans as a light-skinned Black male, last seen wearing no shirt. Once officers identified Evans, I conducted a record check on Evans, which included viewing a previous booking photo of him. During my record check, I discovered Evans is a known [redacted] I also discovered Evans has an extensive criminal history [redacted] deadly weapon, and domestic violence. The victims further told officers there were multiple people inside of the house who both lived there and did not live there.

I know, based on my training and experience, that people who are members of criminal street gangs will often conceal weapons on their person, around their houses and cars, and on their property to easily retrieve them if needed for protection, to evade arrest, or to commit crimes. I further know that violent crimes, such as robbery, are often committed with the use of a dangerous or deadly weapon, including firearms. Based on my training and experience, I know houses that contain multiple people can be dangerous for responding officers because the occupants could, and often do, become upset and uncooperative. Family members and friends will often try to interfere with a police investigation or create a distraction to allow the wanted individual to escape.

We formed a critical response team (CRT) for the front and rear of the house. Each CRT was comprised of a canine team, lethal force options, less lethal munitions, an arrest team, and a supervisor. I was part of the main CRT approaching the house from the front side. Before moving in position, ABLE reported seeing a male with no shirt on walking around the house's property. ABLE saw the male walk several times from the main house to the detached garage. Each time the male would enter the building, ABLE would briefly lose a visual of him. At one point the male exited the garage, walked toward the center of the property, and stopped. This seemed like an ideal time to move the team forward in an attempt to apprehend him while he was outside to eliminate the risk of having him concealed inside a building with multiple other people.

We drove our patrol cars down Detroit Place and stopped them at the intersection of Detroit Place and Duluth Ave, in front of Evans' house. As we approached I saw a male with no shirt and basketball shorts run from the driveway, up the stairs to the house's front door. The male franticly tried to get into the house. At first, he seemed unsuccessful, as though the door was stuck or locked. The male started hitting the door and pulling on it. I exited my patrol car and moved toward the lead patrol car for safety. As I did, the male was able to open the front door, and he entered the house. He closed the door behind him as he entered. Almost immediately, I saw the same male, who was later determined to be Evans, enter the room toward the front of the house to the west of the front door. Evans closed all the blinds in that room, and I lost sight of him.

I took up a position of safety, standing at the rear of the patrol car. Officer Nelson began doing verbal callouts and canine warnings toward the house. Officer Nelson specifically called Evans by name and told him he was under arrest. After 30 seconds of Officer Nelson conducting callouts to the house, the front door opened, and a male juvenile wearing no shorts and gray sweatpants emerged. The male, who was later only identified to me as '[redacted] complied with verbal commands and was taken into custody. Since [redacted] matched the same description of Evans that was given to me by the victims, I handcuffed him to detain him until I could conduct a pat down for weapons on him and identify him. I moved [redacted] to the rear of a parked car and asked him his name. Once he spoke to me and turned to face me, I could see he was not Evans. Prior to unhandcuffing [redacted] another male started to exit the front door of the house. [redacted] told me the second male to exit was not Evans but his brother.

I left [redacted] in a position of safety, and I returned to the CRT to assist with taking the second male into custody. Due to low staffing, I had to act as a hands team for the CRT. I took [redacted] brother into custody, and I conducted a pat down for weapons on him. Once I moved the brother to where [redacted] was standing, I took [redacted] out of handcuffs. I questioned both males, who confirmed Evans was inside the main house and wearing no shirt and dark or black basketball shorts. I relayed the information given to me to CRT. Once another patrol officer arrived to relieve me, I rejoined the CRT.

While I spoke to [redacted] and his brother, Officer Nelson had continued callouts to the residence. A female exited next, and she was taken into custody without incident. After several more callouts, Evans emerged from the residence's front door. Evans wore no shirt, and he wore baggy black basketball shorts. Evans originally complied with Officer Nelson's verbal commands and kept his hands up while he walked down the front stairs toward the sidewalk. Once he reached the bottom of the stairs and onto the sidewalk, Evans stopped complying with commands.

Evans kept his hands up but refused to continue walking toward the contact team. Evans became argumentative toward any commands given to him. He refused to turn around, show the back of his waistband, and comply with commands to continue walking toward the team to be taken into custody safely. Evans would lean against a wall that was approximately waist-high to him. From where I was standing, I could tell there was room on the opposite side of the wall where a person could store a weapon. The earth on the opposite side of the wall was low enough to place an object, including a weapon, on it and it would be concealed from view by someone standing on the street, but it was high enough that someone could easily retrieve that object with minimal ease.

At this point, it was not known if Evans had a concealed firearm on him. His shorts were baggy enough that I could not tell if he had any objects in his pockets. At one point, Evan turned his body, but I could not clearly see the entirety of his waistband to ensure that he was not concealing a firearm. In my training and experience, I have encountered people who have hidden firearms and other deadly weapons in various places on their person, including squeezed between their butt cheeks, where it could still be easily retrieved and used in a quick amount of time.

Officer Nelson continued giving Evans verbal commands and canine warnings. Evans continued to ignore the commands and refused to comply. It was unsafe for officers to approach Evans because we did not know if he had a weapon concealed on him or nearby on the other side of the wall, and he was trying to bait us away from our position of safety to attack us. We also did not know who else or how many others were in the house then. It would be unsafe to leave our protected position and move forward because it would be easy for another person in the house to emerge from the front door or shoot at us from behind one of the many closed windows that faced where we were standing.

During the callouts, Evans would hold his hands up with his palms exposed, but he would slowly place his hands down toward his waistband or pockets. Each time he lowered his hands, he was given commands to put them back up. During this entire contact, Evans continuously told us that he was complying with our commands and following directions, although he had never actually followed the commands. He only stated he was. Evans would take a few steps back and forth and move his body from side to side, but he would not leave the same area where he originally stopped following commands.

After approximately 10 minutes of issuing Evans canine warnings, giving him verbal commands, and telling him he was under arrest, he was impacted with a beanbag shotgun round by Officer Pouchie #1910. Refer to her ARJIS-9 for further details.

Evans fell to the ground on his right side. He started yelling but still refused to comply with commands to walk or crawl toward the CRT to be taken into custody. I took over giving Evans verbal commands for Officer Nelson. I continued to order him to crawl or walk toward us to surrender, and I gave him additional canine warnings. Evans remained in this position for several minutes until he finally sat upright on the bottom step. Although Evans continued to keep his hands with his palms facing us, he also continued to ignore all verbal commands given to him.

Due to where Evans was now sitting, Officer Nelson and I moved to the passenger side of the patrol car to gain a better visual of him. Since Officer Nelson was working his PSD, I took up the role as his lethal coverage. I pointed my firearm at Evans to protect myself and Officer Nelson in the event Evans retrieved a weapon and decided to engage us. I continued to give Evans more verbal commands and canine warnings. I also warned him that he would be shot again if he continued to not comply with our commands. This continued for several more minutes, and Evans still did not comply.

We got to the point where Evans was no longer communicating with us. Originally, he would respond with a "No" or "What's your name" when we gave him commands. Evans stopped responding to our commands altogether. It was apparent Evans was not going to cooperate with us even after being shot with a beanbag shotgun round. I discussed with Lt Bisesto #5797 and A/Sgt Sullivan #6455 that using the PSD in conjunction with another beanbag shotgun round was the safest way to take Evans into custody. This combination of less lethal force would give the CRT the safest approach to take Evans into custody as it would limit his movements and keep him distracted after we left our position of safety.

After Evans was issued several more canine warnings by Officer Nelson, to which Evans did not comply, Officer Nelson sent his PSD to apprehend Evans, and he was impacted again by Officer Pouchie with a beanbag shotgun round. Refer to their ARJIS-9s for more details.

Officer Nelson's PSD was fended off by Evans, who pulled his arms away and swung his hand at it. The apprehension was unsuccessful, and Officer Nelson's PSD was recalled to our position. Evans remained in the same place, sitting on the steps of the house.

I retrieved PSD Seff from my patrol car and stagged only a few feet from the CRT. I removed PSD Seff from my car and moved up to Officer Nelson's position on the passenger's side of the main patrol car we used as cover. With PSD Seff clearly visible to Evans, I issued him three additional canine warnings to surrender, or he would be bitten by a police dog. Evans continued to ignore the verbal commands and canine warnings. As Officer Pouchie impacted Evans with another beanbag shotgun round, I released PSD Seff with his bite command. I released the PSD for the following reasons:

Severity of the crime:

Evans pointed a firearm at two females after they tried to intervene when he was hitting his ex-girlfriend and preventing her from leaving his house. The females stated Evans "racked the slide" and "cocked the hammer" while he was pointing the firearm at them. The females were in such fear of being shot that they left the friend who came to help with Evans while they fled for their own safety and called the police.

Immediacy of the Threat:

Evans was believed to be concealing a firearm or to have access to one that was placed near his location. There were several places near Evans where a firearm or other dangerous weapon could be concealed from view by the CRT. Evans was next to a parked car in the driveway and a retaining wall where weapons could have easily been concealed. Based on Evans' lack of compliance I believed he was trying to bait officers into leaving a position of safety and approaching him so he may ambush them.

Several other occupants were also known to be inside the house. At the time, it was unknown who those occupants were or what level of cooperation they would provide. The house is elevated from the street where the officers were located. This elevated position would give someone an advantage to easily ambush the CRT once they left their position of safety.

Evans is a known member of a criminal street gang, and he has a criminal history of violent crime. Violent criminals and street gang members will often attack officers in order to escape or to receive recognition and clout from other gang members.

Active Resistance:

Evans refused to follow verbal commands and ignored canine warnings for more than ten minutes, regardless of force already being used against him. During this contact, Evans would more often than not do the opposite of the commands issued to him by officers.

Statement Continued:

PSD Seff bit and held on to Evans' left forearm. Almost immediately, Evans laid his body flat on the ground, lying on his stomach with his arms out to the side. The CRT approached Evans, and I gained control of the PSD. Once I had control of the PSD and I could see officers had control of Evans' hands so he could not retrieve a weapon, I removed PSD from the bite. The total time on the bite was approximately 38 seconds.

I placed the PSD in the back of my patrol car and returned to assist the CRT with calling out the other occupants of the household. When people stopped exiting the house and no one responded to more of our callouts, I assisted the team with conducting a safety sweep of the house to ensure they could safely conduct their investigation at the scene. Seven occupants were extracted from the house in total. They all complied with officers' orders and were removed with no force, except for Evans.

While walking up the front stairs to the house, I saw a crowbar and a large metal tire iron in the front yard. Both objects were in close proximity to where Evans was standing and sitting during the contact. Both objects were completely concealed from my view when I was standing with the CRT near the patrol car but were easily accessible from the area Evans was standing in. I photographed the crowbar and tire iron. I later uploaded the photos to Evidence.com.

Prior to leaving the scene, I ensured patrol officers transported Evans to the hospital for treatment of his injuries related to the PSD apprehension and beanbag shotgun rounds. Officers transported Evans to UCSD East Hospital via patrol car, where he was treated for his injuries, which were consistent with a dog bite.
Refer to C#24043762 for further details.

I recorded BWC during this event.

SYNOPSIS:

On 10/24/24 [redacted] and her sister [redacted] reported Marcus Evans pointed a firearm at them during an altercation at his residence located at [redacted] Duluth Avenue in San Diego. Evans and [redacted] were in a domestic relationship and were in the process of breaking up.

[redacted] did not suffer any injuries.

Evans sustained a laceration to his forehead, and it is unclear how he received this injury. Evans also sustained injuries from a beanbag shotgun deployment and a Police Service Dog bite. Evans was transported to Scripp's Mercy Hospital for medical attention.

Evans was arrested for the above listed charges and released at the hospital.

The victim has no known firearms registered in California.

PROTECTIVE ORDER:

EVIDENCE:
Body Worn Camera (BWC) files were shared with the prosecutor's office through Evidence.com.

INVESTIGATION:

I was assigned this case on October 25, 2024. I read all the reports attached to the case. I conducted the above listed background check on the suspect and victim for prior domestic violence incidents, other indicators of high victim risk, and other required cross-reporting.

I viewed the photographic evidence stored in Evidence.com.

In reading the report and watching the BWC I learned the victim [redacted] was uncooperative and did not want police intervention. No phone number for her was listed or provided.

I called [redacted] and spoke with her. She stated she no longer wanted to be involved in the situation. She stated she did not wish to participate in the investigation. I watched the BWC footage of her statement to Officer Johnson #1644. On BWC [redacted] essentially stated the following:

PARAPHRASED STATEMENT OF [redacted] (VICTIM/WITNESS):

My sister [redacted] called me because [redacted] ([redacted] [redacted] called her. She was on the phone and this man (Evans) was whooping [redacted] ass on the phone with a pole and was trying to stab her. With a crowbar or something, I don't know. So, we came over here, lifted the garage, and said "Ok friend c'mon". He wasn't letting her leave. He was saying how he was going to kill himself or he was going to stab himself.

And then I got out of my car and said "C'mon friend let's go". Then he pulled his gun out and cocked his pistol. He pointed the gun at my sister and me. I don't know his name.

When he pulled the gun out, he didn't say anything. I couldn't hear him from that distance. I literally heard him cock the pistol and point it at me and my sister. He was in the garage. And there was light in the garage. We moved and got out of his eyesight. Then he came down to my car, fought my sister and my friend. They tussled on my car. I got out of my car and told him to get the fuck off my sister. Then he said, "What're you gonna do?" and tried to square up with me. I called the police.

I saw the gun was a handgun. It was chrome, that's how I saw it.

The interview took place at 6400 Skyline Avenue in San Diego. While at this location [redacted] estimated for officers the distance she was from Evans when he produced the firearm. I later went to the location to view the distance based on [redacted] statement. I estimated the distance to be approximately 50-60 feet.

I contacted [redacted] also stated she no longer wanted to be involved and did not wish to participate in the investigation. She stated she does not wish to pursue charges against Evans. I watched the BWC footage of her statement to Officer Burns #1948. On BWC [redacted] essentially stated the following:

PARAPHRASED STATEMENT OF [redacted] [redacted] (WITNESS/VICTIM):

My friend ([redacted] called me on the phone (Facetime). She was telling me about what's going on. They ([redacted] and Evans) were having a little dispute. He was asking me questions about [redacted] and I was telling him "No she's not doing this, not doing this." Then I watched this man attack my friend with a pole in his hand. I listened to her scream on the phone and say "Help me."

Me and my sister went to the house. We pulled up and were waiting for [redacted] to come out with her stuff. He comes up and cocks it. I just came to get my friend. He came to the car and started to get aggressive and pushed me down in the ground. We started fighting. He pulled the gun on me earlier when he was in the garage. I don't know what he did with it, but he came outside with her to put her belongings in the car.

All I know is there was a gun pulled out on me. I couldn't see if he pointed it at me because I couldn't see from that distance. All I heard was a sound like a gun loading and that's it. That's all I'm telling you. I was in the street, and from the garage all I heard was the sound.

([redacted] then clarified what she witnessed on the Facetime between [redacted] and Evans)

She wasn't doing anything; she was just sitting on the phone. Next thing I know all I see is her phone start going back and forth and I listened to her scream on the phone. Then I see him standing over her with something metal in his hand. It was pointy at the end, so he was going to stab her. He put it down after I told him. It was not a knife; it was like a piece of tool. It was rusty and brown, and it was pointy. It's in the garage. I watched him beat her on Facetime, and right now too.

([redacted] then clarified her statement regarding the incident at the garage)

When we pulled up [redacted] and Marcus were inside the garage. He opened the garage, and they were standing inside. I told [redacted] to come out so we can go. Marcus closed the garage door. [redacted] opened it up again to come out and he started following her out. He was holding onto her, and she was telling him to let go. He started bringing her stuff down to the car for her. She told him not to come to the car and I also told him not to come to the car. So, he was preventing her from coming to the car but also helping her bring her stuff to the car. It doesn't make sense. You don't even know. I told him to just leave her stuff right there and that's when he started approaching us.

He was putting her stuff in the car. He was pushing on her and getting in her face. She was trying to defend herself and push him out of her face. Then he started to come toward me. She was trying to get him away from me because she already knows I'm gonna swing. That's when we ended up tussling on my sister's car. He knocked me down and my friend was on top of me trying to get him off me.

I did not see the gun. I can't see that far.

Evans did not have any injuries, which appears inconsistent with [redacted]'s statement that [redacted] was beaten with a crow bar type object.

No contact information was available for [redacted] When I spoke with [redacted] she provided me with the number of [redacted] for [redacted] I called the number; however, my phone call went unanswered. I left a voicemail requesting a call back.

In reading the reports I learned [redacted] statement was not documented. I watched the BWC of Officer Burns and Officer Arreguin #1732, who both spoke with [redacted] On BWC she essentially stated the following:

PARAPHRASED STATEMENT OF [redacted] (VICTIM):

There was an altercation earlier. I was pushing him off since he was going toward my best friend. All I heard was a gun cock back. He did not point a firearm at me. I did not see a gun.

Marcus was my boyfriend. We got into a fight, but it was not physical. It was my fault. I was aggressive. We got into an altercation and then he came out to help me put my stuff in the car.

We got into it more and he pushed [redacted] to the ground. I probably hit him, but I don't remember.

I do not want to press charges against him.

INVESTIGATION CONTINUED:

I learned through watching the BWC that [redacted] used to live at [redacted] with Evans but has since moved out. No updated address was listed for [redacted] I drove to [redacted], which is the listed address of [redacted] in an attempt to locate [redacted] I knocked on the door and identified myself as a San Diego Police Department detective. Someone told me behind a closed door that [redacted] was not home, and [redacted] did not live there. She refused to open the door for me. I called [redacted] and she confirmed [redacted] does not live with her and she did not know her address.

I drove to [redacted], which is the listed address of [redacted] in another attempt to locate [redacted] An older woman answered the door who stated [redacted] was not home and [redacted] did not live at the address. She did not know where [redacted] lives. I called [redacted] and she confirmed [redacted] did not live with her and she did not know where she lived.

I conducted a check of [redacted] through law enforcement data bases and located an old address of [redacted] at [redacted]. [redacted] had reported the address in 2018. I mailed [redacted] a brochure of services through Your Safe Place as well as my business card and a note requesting contact.

As of the writing of this report I have not been able to contact [redacted]

SCENE DESCRIPTION:

I drove to the incident address, [redacted] Duluth Avenue. The residence is a two-story home with a detached garage to the east. I noticed the driveway is sloped up and to the left when looking at the home from the street. The driveway is approximately 30-35 feet long and leads to a garage. The view is slightly obstructed by a fence to the east and largely obstructed by a large SUV parked in the driveway. I noticed while watching the BWC the SUV was in the driveway at the time of the incident. Based on these facts and the fact it was dark at the time of the incident make it unlikely [redacted] would have been able to see Evans pull a firearm from the distance she reported.

I took photographs of the house and later uploaded them to evidence.com

I did not locate any cameras or other witnesses to the incident.

CONCLUSION:

☒ Based on the officer's report, statements of those involved, and my follow up investigation, I am forwarding this case to the City Attorney requesting the suspect be charged with the charges listed on page one of the report.

☐ Based on the officer's report, statements of those involved, and my follow up investigation, I am requesting a Notify Warrant be issued for this suspect.

REPORT NARRATIVE

SYNOPSIS:

On 10/24/2024 at approximately 2318 hours, Marcus Evans racked the slide of a semi-automatic handgun and pointed it at [redacted] and [redacted] in the cul-de-sac in front of 6461 Duluth Avenue, San Diego 92114. This occurred as a result of [redacted] and [redacted] intervening in a domestic violence altercation between Evans and his ex-girlfriend, [redacted] During the domestic altercation, a verbal argument escalated, and Evans pushed and struck [redacted]

When Evan's was contacted by officers, he was non-compliant. For approximately 15 minutes, Evans defied officers' orders to show his hands and surrender. After multiple commands and canine warnings, Evans was impacted with a less lethal beanbag shotgun and apprehended with the assistance of a SDPD canine.

Evans was placed under arrest for two counts of 245(a)(2) PC - Assault with Firearm on Person, one count of 243(e)(1) PC - Battery: Spouse/Ex-Spouse, and one count of 148(a)(1) PC - Obstruct/Resist Peace Officer.
Evans was transported to UCSD East Campus for medical treatment and jail clearance.

At the time of this report, Evans was still at the hospital.

ORIGIN:

On 10/24/2025 I was on patrol in the City of San Diego. I was wearing full police uniform and driving a marked patrol vehicle. At approximately 2318 hours, I responded to a radio call at 6461 Duluth Avenue, San Diego 92114 for an individual who was threatening others with a firearm. The reporting party, later identified via her California driver's license as [redacted] stated that a male had produced a handgun and "racked it." [redacted] also stated that a female at the location named [redacted] had been beat up by her ex-boyfriend.

BACKGROUND:

Marcus Evans and [redacted] were in a dating relationship. They do not share any children in common. [redacted] confirmed she had been in a dating relationship with Evans, but refused to provide any further details regarding when and for how long.

INVESTIGATION:

Upon my arrival on scene, I met with [redacted] and two other females at 6400 Skyline Drive. One female was identified via her California ID photograph as [redacted] The other female identified hersef as [redacted] but officers were unable to verify her identity.

[redacted] was uncooperative with officers when asked for a statement. Please see Officer Arreguin's #1732 ARJIS-9 for further details.

I asked [redacted] what happened, and she essentially told me the following:

STATEMENTS:

Please see Officer Johnson's #1644 ARJIS-9 for statement of [redacted]

Paraphrased Statement of [redacted] (Victim):

I was on Facetime with [redacted] and she had a verbal argument with Marcus. They were yelling and screaming. I saw him beat her with some kind of pole or crowbar. My sister [redacted] came and picked me up so we could go help [redacted] When we drove up to [redacted] Duluth Avenue, the garage was closed. [redacted] was in the garage. We were still on the phone. [redacted] opened the garage to come out to us, but then Marcus held her back by her shirt. He let her go and started bringing some of her stuff out to put in the car. He started talking shit to her, and then to me. We all got in a tussle on the hood of the car. I fell down. I tried getting in between [redacted] and Marcus. I heard him rack a gun. I saw it was a handgun. My sister saw him point it at us, and then we got [redacted] in the car and came here where we saw police.

I asked [redacted] if she had any injuries. She stated she did not and refused medical attention.

Based on the statements made by [redacted] and [redacted] officers determined Evans was in violation of 245(a)(2) PC - Assault with a Firearm on Person, and 243(e)(1) PC - Battery on Spouse/Ex-Spouse.

A contact team of SDPD patrol officers and canine officers was assembled and a plan created to contact Evans. Officers conducted a contain and callout at the residence. Evans exited the residence and was non-compliant. Evans was told that he was under arrest. Evens refused officer's commands to keep his hands visible and walk towards officers. Evans protested officer's directions and said that it was his house, and he was not going to comply with officer's orders. For approximately 15 minutes, Evans continued to defy officer's orders to show his hands and surrender. After multiple commands and canine warnings, he was impacted three times with a less lethal beanbag shotgun and apprehended with a canine.

Evans was placed under arrest and additionally charged with 148(a)(1) PC - Obstruct/Resist Peace Officer.

INDIVIDUAL/S

REPORT NARRATIVE

On 10/25/2024 at approximately 2318 hours, I was in full police uniform driving a marked SDPD police vehicle when I responded to a radio call detailing a male, later identified as MARCUS EVANS (CA DL# [redacted] DOB: 3/23/1993) wanted for assault with a deadly weapon with a firearm at 6461 Duluth Ave in San Diego, CA 92114.

While en route to the radio call, SDPD ABLE (Airborne Law Enforcement) was assisting officers and updated officers on scene that the individual [Evans] was outside the residence hitting the front door. EVANS was described as a black male adult with no shirt and black basketball shorts. Officers were advised many individuals other than EVANS were inside the residence.

I arrived on scene and was assigned to be less-lethal coverage with the beanbag shotgun.

The bean-bag shotgun was patrol ready, which was verified. A high risk pedestrian stop was initiated on Evans in front of 6461 Duluth Ave in San Diego. EVANS quickly retreated inside the residence and closed the front door as soon as officer arrived on scene. I parked my vehicle to the left of K-9's vehicle, grabbed the less-lethal beanbag shotgun and walked to the right side of the vehicle, positioned myself facing the front door of the residence, and pointed the bean bag shotgun in the direction of the front door.

The residence had an inclined driveway with a staircase that led to the front door.

Multiple individuals began to exit the residence and followed officers' commands. These individuals were safely moved away from the residence.

EVANS presented himself at the front door and initially followed officers' commands to place his hands over his head and walk down the stairs. When officers asked EVANS to keep his hands over his head, he refused and kept bringing his hands down from above his head. EVANS made movements towards his waist band. Officers commanded EVANS to face away from officers and walk backwards, but EVANS refused and sat down on the lower step of the residence, approximately 25 feet away from police. EVANS continued to move around and place his hands where I could not see them. EVANS continued to be uncooperative with officer commands and refused to show officers his complete waistband, so it was still unconfirmed if EVANS was armed with a weapon.

I moved my position to be on the left side of the vehicle, positioned myself to face EVANS and pointed my beanbag shotgun at his person. I aimed at EVANS'S lower right torso area and fired my beanbag as a compliance check after being directed to by a supervisor on-scene. The beanbag round hit EVANS in the lower right torso, as aimed and planned. EVANS dropped to the ground. EVANS continued to be uncompliant with officers' commands. EVANS used foul language and refused to crawl or walk back to officers.

In concurrence with K-9 release, I aimed my beanbag shotgun at EVANS'S left arm in his bicep area and fired another round. The beanbag hit EVANS in his left arm and the K-9 was sent. K-9 did not bite. The initial K-9 was removed, and a secondary K-9 was introduced.

EVANS continued to lay on the ground and refuse to show his hands. EVANS continued to curse at officers and refuse all officer commands.

Secondary K-9 was deployed. In concurrence with secondary K-9 deployment, I aimed my beanbag shotgun at EVANS'S right shin area and fired another round. The beanbag hit EVANS in his right shin and the secondary K-9 was sent. K-9-bit EVANS left arm.

Officers took EVANS into custody and EVANS was placed in the backseat of my patrol vehicle. I transported EVANS to UCSD East, where he was evaluated by medical professionals.

This concluded my involvement in the investigation. Please see Officer Burns #1948 for further details.

REPORT NARRATIVE

On Thursday October 24, 2024, at about 2347 hours, Officer Esambolchi (ID #1087) and I were assigned to Southeastern Patrol when we responded to assist with a criminal investigation at 6461 Duluth Avenue in the City of San Diego. Prior to our arrival, I learned through my police radio that the suspect had assaulted two people with a firearm. The suspect was named Marcus and was wearing basketball shorts with no shirt.

We arrived on scene in a marked San Diego Police vehicle, wearing a complete police uniform, and with my body worn camera activated. Upon arrival, I approached the residence where officers were contacting a male by the front stairs who matched the suspect description. My role during this time was to assist officers on scene by taking the suspect into custody.

When next to the police car, I heard one of the K9 officer call out to Marcus ordering him to crawl towards us. Marcus was informed he would be provided with medical attention and help. At this point I was standing directly behind the K9 officers next to the front passenger seat. Marcus was given a warning that if he didn't comply, he would be impacted again (by a bean bag), and bit by a police dog. Marcus was also informed he was under arrest. About 6 minutes later from when we positioned ourselves next to the front passenger seat, and after giving Marcus multiple opportunities to surrender, a bean bag munition was deployed and the police service dog was sent to apprehend Marcus. We then moved towards Marcus to take him into custody.

I held Marcus from the lower back portion of his head with my left hand using minimal force in order to control his head. I also held him from his left tricep with my right hand to place him in handcuffs. I transitioned to holding his right wrist while my left hand still held onto the lower back of Marcus' head. Officer Kim (ID #1611) then placed handcuffs on the suspect.

We moved Marcus towards the rear of a police car for safety reasons, and for his arrest, as officers were going to clear the residence. When I moved Marcus, I could feel his weight pulling down and not wanting to walk on his own. I carried Marcus from his left arm while Officer Kim picked him up from the opposite side, and we moved him into the back seat of a police car. Marcus was not standing up and entering the police car. Therefore, I picked him up again from his left arm and moved Marcus into the back seat. Other officers completed placing Marcus into the car.

This concludes my portion of the investigation.

INDIVIDUAL/S

REPORT NARRATIVE

Officer's Statement:

On 10/24/24, at approximately 2318 hours, Southeastern Division officers responded to a radio call of a male pointing a firearm at a female at 6461 Duluth Ave. I am currently assigned to the San Diego Police Department Canine Unit with Police Service Dog (PSD) Seff #C-1323. I responded to the call to assist while wearing a full police uniform and driving a marked patrol car.

I arrived on the scene first and stagged on Skyline Drive, away from the target location. While waiting for additional cover units, the reporting party, [redacted] and the victim, [redacted] drove out of the cul-de-sac and parked on Skyline Drive. Before I approached them to get more information, another female, later identified as [redacted] approached their car and entered the backseat. [redacted] was still on the phone with dispatch, and I asked, via the radio, for [redacted] to drive over to me so I could speak to all three females.

I briefly spoke to [redacted] and [redacted] before I was relieved by patrol officers. At the time [redacted] was uncooperative with my questions, but [redacted] told me she saw [redacted] ex-boyfriend, later identified as Marcus Evans, point a gun at herself and [redacted] stated Evans "Cocked the hammer" while he was pointing it at her.

A patrol officer arrived and took [redacted] and [redacted] full statements. The investigating officer determined enough probable cause existed to arrest Evans for two counts of assault with a deadly weapon. While officers were interviewing the victims, the police helicopter (ABLE) was watching Evans' house. While ABLE watched, they stated several times that they saw a Black male going to the main house from the garage, which is detached from the home. The officers interviewing the female victims informed me that Evans lives in the detached garage but that he has access to the entire main house. [redacted] and [redacted] described Evans as a light-skinned Black male, last seen wearing no shirt. Once officers identified Evans, I conducted a record check on Evans, which included viewing a previous booking photo of him. During my record check, I discovered Evans is a known [redacted] I also discovered Evans has an extensive criminal history [redacted] The victims further told officers there were multiple people inside of the house who both lived there and did not live there.

I know, based on my training and experience, that people who are members of criminal street gangs will often conceal weapons on their person, around their houses and cars, and on their property to easily retrieve them if needed for protection, to evade arrest, or to commit crimes. I further know that violent crimes, such as robbery, are often committed with the use of a dangerous or deadly weapon, including firearms. Based on my training and experience, I know houses that contain multiple people can be dangerous for responding officers because the occupants could, and often do, become upset and uncooperative. Family members and friends will often try to interfere with a police investigation or create a distraction to allow the wanted individual to escape.

We formed a critical response team (CRT) for the front and rear of the house. Each CRT was comprised of a canine team, lethal force options, less lethal munitions, an arrest team, and a supervisor. I was part of the main CRT approaching the house from the front side. Before moving in position, ABLE reported seeing a male with no shirt on walking around the house's property. ABLE saw the male walk several times from the main house to the detached garage. Each time the male would enter the building, ABLE would briefly lose a visual of him. At one point the male exited the garage, walked toward the center of the property, and stopped. This seemed like an ideal time to move the team forward in an attempt to apprehend him while he was outside to eliminate the risk of having him concealed inside a building with multiple other people.

We drove our patrol cars down Detroit Place and stopped them at the intersection of Detroit Place and Duluth Ave, in front of Evans' house. As we approached I saw a male with no shirt and basketball shorts run from the driveway, up the stairs to the house's front door. The male franticly tried to get into the house. At first, he seemed unsuccessful, as though the door was stuck or locked. The male started hitting the door and pulling on it. I exited my patrol car and moved toward the lead patrol car for safety. As I did, the male was able to open the front door, and he entered the house. He closed the door behind him as he entered. Almost immediately, I saw the same male, who was later determined to be Evans, enter the room toward the front of the house to the west of the front door. Evans closed all the blinds in that room, and I lost sight of him.

I took up a position of safety, standing at the rear of the patrol car. Officer Nelson began doing verbal callouts and canine warnings toward the house. Officer Nelson specifically called Evans by name and told him he was under arrest. After 30 seconds of Officer Nelson conducting callouts to the house, the front door opened, and a male juvenile wearing no shorts and gray sweatpants emerged. The male, who was later only identified to me as '[redacted] complied with verbal commands and was taken into custody. Since [redacted] matched the same description of Evans that was given to me by the victims, I handcuffed him to detain him until I could conduct a pat down for weapons on him and identify him. I moved [redacted] to the rear of a parked car and asked him his name. Once he spoke to me and turned to face me, I could see he was not Evans. Prior to unhandcuffing [redacted] another male started to exit the front door of the house. [redacted] told me the second male to exit was not Evans but his brother.

I left [redacted] in a position of safety, and I returned to the CRT to assist with taking the second male into custody. Due to low staffing, I had to act as a hands team for the CRT. I took [redacted] brother into custody, and I conducted a pat down for weapons on him. Once I moved the brother to where [redacted] was standing, I took [redacted] out of handcuffs. I questioned both males, who confirmed Evans was inside the main house and wearing no shirt and dark or black basketball shorts. I relayed the information given to me to CRT. Once another patrol officer arrived to relieve me, I rejoined the CRT.

While I spoke to [redacted] and his brother, Officer Nelson had continued callouts to the residence. A female exited next, and she was taken into custody without incident. After several more callouts, Evans emerged from the residence's front door. Evans wore no shirt, and he wore baggy black basketball shorts. Evans originally complied with Officer Nelson's verbal commands and kept his hands up while he walked down the front stairs toward the sidewalk. Once he reached the bottom of the stairs and onto the sidewalk, Evans stopped complying with commands.

Evans kept his hands up but refused to continue walking toward the contact team. Evans became argumentative toward any commands given to him. He refused to turn around, show the back of his waistband, and comply with commands to continue walking toward the team to be taken into custody safely. Evans would lean against a wall that was approximately waist-high to him. From where I was standing, I could tell there was room on the opposite side of the wall where a person could store a weapon. The earth on the opposite side of the wall was low enough to place an object, including a weapon, on it and it would be concealed from view by someone standing on the street, but it was high enough that someone could easily retrieve that object with minimal ease.

At this point, it was not known if Evans had a concealed firearm on him. His shorts were baggy enough that I could not tell if he had any objects in his pockets. At one point, Evan turned his body, but I could not clearly see the entirety of his waistband to ensure that he was not concealing a firearm. In my training and experience, I have encountered people who have hidden firearms and other deadly weapons in various places on their person, including squeezed between their butt cheeks, where it could still be easily retrieved and used in a quick amount of time.

Officer Nelson continued giving Evans verbal commands and canine warnings. Evans continued to ignore the commands and refused to comply. It was unsafe for officers to approach Evans because we did not know if he had a weapon concealed on him or nearby on the other side of the wall, and he was trying to bait us away from our position of safety to attack us. We also did not know who else or how many others were in the house then. It would be unsafe to leave our protected position and move forward because it would be easy for another person in the house to emerge from the front door or shoot at us from behind one of the many closed windows that faced where we were standing.

During the callouts, Evans would hold his hands up with his palms exposed, but he would slowly place his hands down toward his waistband or pockets. Each time he lowered his hands, he was given commands to put them back up. During this entire contact, Evans continuously told us that he was complying with our commands and following directions, although he had never actually followed the commands. He only stated he was. Evans would take a few steps back and forth and move his body from side to side, but he would not leave the same area where he originally stopped following commands.

After approximately 10 minutes of issuing Evans canine warnings, giving him verbal commands, and telling him he was under arrest, he was impacted with a beanbag shotgun round by Officer Pouchie #1910. Refer to her ARJIS-9 for further details.

Evans fell to the ground on his right side. He started yelling but still refused to comply with commands to walk or crawl toward the CRT to be taken into custody. I took over giving Evans verbal commands for Officer Nelson. I continued to order him to crawl or walk toward us to surrender, and I gave him additional canine warnings. Evans remained in this position for several minutes until he finally sat upright on the bottom step. Although Evans continued to keep his hands with his palms facing us, he also continued to ignore all verbal commands given to him.

Due to where Evans was now sitting, Officer Nelson and I moved to the passenger side of the patrol car to gain a better visual of him. Since Officer Nelson was working his PSD, I took up the role as his lethal coverage. I pointed my firearm at Evans to protect myself and Officer Nelson in the event Evans retrieved a weapon and decided to engage us. I continued to give Evans more verbal commands and canine warnings. I also warned him that he would be shot again if he continued to not comply with our commands. This continued for several more minutes, and Evans still did not comply.

We got to the point where Evans was no longer communicating with us. Originally, he would respond with a "No" or "What's your name" when we gave him commands. Evans stopped responding to our commands altogether. It was apparent Evans was not going to cooperate with us even after being shot with a beanbag shotgun round. I discussed with Lt Bisesto #5797 and A/Sgt Sullivan #6455 that using the PSD in conjunction with another beanbag shotgun round was the safest way to take Evans into custody. This combination of less lethal force would give the CRT the safest approach to take Evans into custody as it would limit his movements and keep him distracted after we left our position of safety.

After Evans was issued several more canine warnings by Officer Nelson, to which Evans did not comply, Officer Nelson sent his PSD to apprehend Evans, and he was impacted again by Officer Pouchie with a beanbag shotgun round. Refer to their ARJIS-9s for more details.

Officer Nelson's PSD was fended off by Evans, who pulled his arms away and swung his hand at it. The apprehension was unsuccessful, and Officer Nelson's PSD was recalled to our position. Evans remained in the same place, sitting on the steps of the house.

I retrieved PSD Seff from my patrol car and stagged only a few feet from the CRT. I removed PSD Seff from my car and moved up to Officer Nelson's position on the passenger's side of the main patrol car we used as cover. With PSD Seff clearly visible to Evans, I issued him three additional canine warnings to surrender, or he would be bitten by a police dog. Evans continued to ignore the verbal commands and canine warnings. As Officer Pouchie impacted Evans with another beanbag shotgun round, I released PSD Seff with his bite command. I released the PSD for the following reasons:

Severity of the crime:

Evans pointed a firearm at two females after they tried to intervene when he was hitting his ex-girlfriend and preventing her from leaving his house. The females stated Evans "racked the slide" and "cocked the hammer" while he was pointing the firearm at them. The females were in such fear of being shot that they left the friend who came to help with Evans while they fled for their own safety and called the police.

Immediacy of the Threat:

Evans was believed to be concealing a firearm or to have access to one that was placed near his location. There were several places near Evans where a firearm or other dangerous weapon could be concealed from view by the CRT. Evans was next to a parked car in the driveway and a retaining wall where weapons could have easily been concealed. Based on Evans' lack of compliance I believed he was trying to bait officers into leaving a position of safety and approaching him so he may ambush them.

Several other occupants were also known to be inside the house. At the time, it was unknown who those occupants were or what level of cooperation they would provide. The house is elevated from the street where the officers were located. This elevated position would give someone an advantage to easily ambush the CRT once they left their position of safety.

Evans is a known member of a criminal street gang, and he has a criminal history of violent crime. Violent criminals and street gang members will often attack officers in order to escape or to receive recognition and clout from other gang members.

Active Resistance:

Evans refused to follow verbal commands and ignored canine warnings for more than ten minutes, regardless of force already being used against him. During this contact, Evans would more often than not do the opposite of the commands issued to him by officers.

Statement Continued:

PSD Seff bit and held on to Evans' left forearm. Almost immediately, Evans laid his body flat on the ground, lying on his stomach with his arms out to the side. The CRT approached Evans, and I gained control of the PSD. Once I had control of the PSD and I could see officers had control of Evans' hands so he could not retrieve a weapon, I removed PSD from the bite. The total time on the bite was approximately 38 seconds.

I placed the PSD in the back of my patrol car and returned to assist the CRT with calling out the other occupants of the household. When people stopped exiting the house and no one responded to more of our callouts, I assisted the team with conducting a safety sweep of the house to ensure they could safely conduct their investigation at the scene. Seven occupants were extracted from the house in total. They all complied with officers' orders and were removed with no force, except for Evans.

While walking up the front stairs to the house, I saw a crowbar and a large metal tire iron in the front yard. Both objects were in close proximity to where Evans was standing and sitting during the contact. Both objects were completely concealed from my view when I was standing with the CRT near the patrol car but were easily accessible from the area Evans was standing in. I photographed the crowbar and tire iron. I later uploaded the photos to Evidence.com.

Prior to leaving the scene, I ensured patrol officers transported Evans to the hospital for treatment of his injuries related to the PSD apprehension and beanbag shotgun rounds. Officers transported Evans to UCSD East Hospital via patrol car, where he was treated for his injuries, which were consistent with a dog bite.
Refer to C#24043762 for further details.

I recorded BWC during this event.

REPORT NARRATIVE

On 10/24/2024, at approximately 2347 hours, Officer I. Castillo #7875 and I responded to a radio call of a threatening with weapon hot call at 6461 Duluth Ave. We were in full police uniform in a marked patrol vehicle.

Prior to my arrival on scene, I learned through my police radio a valid assault with deadly weapon (firearm) had occurred. The notes on the radio call mentioned the suspect was named Marcus Evans. The suspect was described as a black male adult, wearing no shirt, and black shorts.

Upon my arrival on scene, officers were on the driver's side of a patrol vehicle and were contacting a male who was standing in front of a set of stairs (which was located in front of the residence). The male was a black male adult, wearing no shirt, and shorts. The male matched the description of the suspect on the radio call. The male was later identified as Marcus Evans (DOB: 03/23/1993). A contact team was in place which included a less lethal beanbag, K9, and a lethal element. My role during this was to be the hands element of the contact team and assist officers in taking Evans into custody. Officers gave Evans several verbal commands, however; Evans was non-compliant with officer's commands. Evans was ultimately impacted by a less lethal beanbag shotgun. See Officer Pouchie's officer report for details.

The contact team (lethal, less lethal beanbag shotgun, and K9) moved to the passenger side of the patrol vehicle. Based on Evans being the suspect of an assault with deadly weapon (firearm), I believed him to be armed and dangerous. I unholstered my handgun and pointed it at Evans. Evans was still being non-compliant with officers' commands. Evans was impacted by a less lethal beanbag shotgun round for a second time. The police service dog was also sent to apprehend Evans. The contact team moved from the passenger side of the patrol vehicle and approached Evans. I was at the driver's side of the patrol vehicle, and I approached the residence and provided lethal coverage (for the officers taking Evans into custody) in the direction of the residence. After Evans was taken into custody, I retreated to the patrol car. Officers conducted call-outs on the residence and three individuals exited from the residence. Due to a firearm being outstanding, during this I had my firearm held at the low ready position. The three individuals who exited the residence were cooperative with officer's commands.

I later took a perimeter position on the northeast corner of a single detached garage on the property. I later assisted in clearing the interior of the detached garage.

This concluded my involvement in this incident. See Officer Burns' #1948 arrest report for details.

REPORT NARRATIVE

On 10/24/2024 at approximately 2318 hours, I was in full police uniform and driving a marked patrol vehicle in the city of San Diego when I responded to a radio call regarding a male with a gun at 431 Detroit Place, San Diego.

I arrived at 6400 Skyline Drive and began speaking with the reporting party, later identified as [redacted] by her California Driver License. She advised that she drove to 6461 Duluth Avenue with her sister after receiving a call from their friend who was actively involved in a domestic physical altercation. During the incident, [redacted] stated the male, later identified as MARCUS EVANS from a prior booking photo, pointed a gun at her and cocked the slide back chambering a bullet. I took the following statement.

Statement from [redacted] (Reporting Party/Victim):

[redacted] essentially told me the following:

My sister, [redacted] called me telling me to pick her up because her friend [redacted] [redacted] was involved in a physical fight with her boyfriend MARCUS EVANS. [redacted] was on facetime with [redacted] when she witnessed EVANS hitting her with a crowbar or like a metal pole. I didn't witness the physical altercation myself, my sister just told me. I came from 47th street and picked up [redacted] and began driving over to their address at [redacted] When I got there, we parked and stood in the middle of the cul-de-sac trying to get [redacted] to come out and leave with us. I saw EVANS about 40 feet from me standing in the garage point a handgun towards me and cock the slide back. I saw it and heard the noise of the slide. The handgun was chromed that's why I was able to see it in the dark. I couldn't get a full look at it because it was far and dark. I just wanted to get out of there.

He pointed it at me and my sister. I moved and began yelling at [redacted] to hurry and come to the car. [redacted] eventually came out and walked around to the right side of my car and tried getting inside. EVANS followed and was preventing her from leaving. I didn't see the gun anymore after he pointed it at me and my sister. My sister was getting in between EVANS and [redacted] to try and separate them. EVANS was grabbing [redacted] t keep her from leaving. I began yelling at EVANS to get off my sister because he was starting to grab onto her. [redacted] began telling us to just leave and that she would stay but I told her that I already called the police and that we needed to go. That's why I think EVANS ran back inside the house.

We finally got in the car and began driving away until I got flagged down by an officer who told me to park over here. I don't know what happened with the gun, but I know the sounds it made when he cocked the slide back and I can tell it was a gun. I don't know anything about her boyfriend, this is the first time I have ever seen him.

I don't know his name, but he is a light skinned male, about 30 years old, 5'8, weighting about 120 pounds, wearing no shirt, black shorts and sandals.

End of statement.

After speaking with [redacted] I followed up with checking [redacted] for possible injuries based off [redacted] statements that she was possibly assaulted with a weapon. I did not locate any injuries on [redacted] who was uncooperative with providing an information regarding the incident.

Officer Burns #1948 spoke with [redacted] who witnessed the facetime incident and heard the cocking of the firearm as well. See her arrest report for further details.

Based on [redacted] statement, MARCUS EVANS in in violation of 245(a)(2) PC - Assault with a deadly weapon with a firearm and 243(e)(1) PC - Domestic battery.

Officers conducted a plan and ultimately got EVANS in custody. While standing by [redacted] she made spontaneous statements admitting she was in a physical altercation with EVANS who rushed her and she proceeded to push him off and kick him away prior to the arrival of [redacted] and her sister.

I conducted a follow up to UCSD East Campus due to injuries EVANS sustained during the incident and took custody until I was relieved of my duty.

That concludes my involvement in the investigation.

INDIVIDUAL/S

REPORT NARRATIVE

On 10/25/2024, at approximately 0018 hours, I was on duty wearing a full police uniform and driving a marked patrol vehicle when I responded to a radio call about a male subject pointing a handgun and racking the slide at a female at 431 Detroit Place in the City of San Diego.

Prior to arrival, contacting officers had initiated a high-risk pedestrian stop at 6461 Duluth Avenue. The male subject later identified himself as Marcus Evans (DOB 03/23/1993). The primary contacting officer parked his patrol vehicle to take cover. The patrol vehicle was facing south from the target address. Officers were on the driver's side of the vehicle when they initiated the contact with Evans.

Upon arrival, I saw multiple officers contacting Evans at the front of his residence at [redacted] I was directed by A/Sgt Sullivan #6455 to assist officers in taking Evans into custody. I was part of a hands team. During this time, Evans was uncooperative, and he refused to follow simple directions.

Evans was impacted by a bean bag shotgun; he ultimately got on the ground. Officers moved to the passenger side of the vehicle to have a better view of Evans. I took out my department-issued handgun and I had my handgun low ready during this time. The canine officer deployed his partner canine, and officers and I moved up to Evans to take him into custody. Officers grabbed Evans' both hands and I assisted by placing handcuffs on Evans. I patted Evans for weapons purposes. I rolled Evans to his left side, and I assisted Evans in standing up. Evans refused to stand up and walk to my patrol car. Officer Castillo #7875 held Evans' left arm and I was holding him under his right armpit to lift Evans. Officer Castillo and I carried Evans under his armpit to my patrol vehicle to safely continue the investigation.

Evans was ultimately placed in the backseat of the patrol vehicle. While I was waiting at the patrol vehicle, I spoke to [redacted] Evans who essentially told me he was sleeping in his room. During this time, I was directed by A/Sgt Christman #7711 to assist officers in safely sweeping the residence. I took out my department-issued handgun while I was clearing the house.

Prior to leaving the scene, I took photographs of beanbags, beanbag shell casings, and the scene and I later uploaded them on Evidence.com under event #24100036129. I also collected the beanbag rounds and I later impounded them at the Southeastern Division Property Room under barcode # 11540346. I collected the beanbag casings and I later impounded them at the Southeastern Division Property Room under barcode # 11540348.

My BWC was activated during the investigation. BLUE TEAM was submitted.

INDIVIDUAL/S

REPORT NARRATIVE

ORIGIN:

On October 24, 2024, at approximately 2318 hours, I was in full police uniform and driving a marked patrol vehicle. I am assigned to the Canine Unit, and I had my Police Service Dog (PSD), Tito. (#C-1313) with me. I responded to a radio call for a male threatening a female with a firearm near 431 Detroit Place, San Diego.

OFFICER'S STATEMENT:

Southeastern Division officers contacted the reporting parties and determined a male, positively identified as Marcus EVANS via previous booking photos, had pointed a firearm at two people in a threatening manner. The reporting party described EVANS' actions to include pointing a firearm and racking the slide, presumably to chamber a round. The reporting party and victims drove away from the location and met officers staging on Skyline Drive. Officers advised there was probable cause to arrest EVANS for two counts of assault with a firearm. The San Diego Police Air Support Unit helicopter (ABLE) assisted with watching EVANS' residence, identified as [redacted] while a contact team was created. A full perimeter was established, including officers and other canine teams along South 65th Street and inside of MLK Jr. Park. There was a serious concern for the safety of others and officers if EVANS was allowed to leave the residence armed. ABLE observed a male believed to be EVANS, shirtless and wearing dark basketball shorts, walking between a detached garage and main residence multiple times.

During the staging and planning phase, officers were able to identify EVANS from prior contacts. I viewed a previous booking photo of him. I was made aware that EVANS had multiple prior arrests, [redacted]. Officers were staged for nearly an hour, creating a plan to safely contact the residence and de-escalate any possible resistance. The plan included my vehicle in the front with a ballistic shield, my PSD, a beanbag shotgun Kinetic Energy Weapon (KEW) and lethal cover. The plan was to conduct a contain and call out plan, ordering EVANS and all other residents out of the property.

At approximately 0009 hours on the 25th, the contact team moved forward to the residence. ABLE observed EVANS walking from the garage to the front of the main residence. I was driving the lead vehicle, placing a ballistic shield on my windshield in the event EVANS attempted to shoot at my vehicle while approaching. I observed EVANS, still shirtless and wearing dark basketball shorts, walk into the front door. As I stopped my vehicle, EVANS slammed a security screen door closed.

The residence was on a hill with a concrete stairway below the front door that led to the street. There were multiple windows facing the street. The layout of the property provided EVANS and other occupants the high ground position of advantage in comparison to our contact team. Using my patrol vehicle as cover, the contact team attempted to call out EVANS from the residence. I deployed my PSD, Tito, on the driver side of my vehicle.

I observed movement from the north facing windows, including the moving of curtains and blinds. As I began verbal call outs, the movement continued. I identified myself as San Diego Police and gave multiple canine warnings. The canine warnings were to the effect of, "San Diego Police, Marcus Evans, exit the residence with nothing in your hands. If you do not exit or attempt to flee, a police dog will be sent, and you will be bitten." I gave multiple canine warnings, yelling loudly. I gave orders for all residents to exit but continued to give warnings directly to EVANS. Officers on the rear perimeter positions advised they could hear my warnings from their positions.

A shirtless male exited the residence and was cooperative with my commands. The male was identified as not being the suspect, EVANS. I continued call outs to exit. Two additional people, a male and female, exited the residence. Both were compliant and were detained without any incident.

At approximately 0015 hours, EVANS exited the residence. EVANS was wearing black basketball style shorts, no shirt, and no shoes. EVANS matched the photo previously shown to me and I also confirmed with other officers on scene that the fourth male was in fact EVANS. I gave EVANS clear instructions to show me his hands and to walk down the stairs. EVANS initially followed my commands, walking to the bottom of the staircase.

Once at the bottom, EVANS became uncooperative. I order EVANS to turn around, facing away from the contact team. I had previously given the same commands to the other occupants. All prior occupants complied with those orders and were guided back to the contact team.

EVANS stood at the foot of the staircase and began yelling that he did not have to listen to my commands and that he was at his own residence. I attempted to deescalate by asking his name and giving him further details as to why we were at the residence. I told EVANS he was detained pending the investigation, stating we received a radio call of a felony offense including a firearm. EVANS was argumentative and uncooperative, stating he had done nothing wrong.

During the contact, EVANS' face had a glazed over appearance and he was slurring his speech. I believed EVANS could have been under the influence of alcohol or controlled substances. I know both have effects on the human body that can cause irrational and unpredictable behaviors.

I continued to give verbal commands to EVANS. I believed EVANS to be armed and dangerous. EVANS had not been patted down or searched for any weapons. EVANS had been seen walking to and from the garage and it was unknown where the firearm was located. In addition, EVANS was near a retaining wall and parked vehicle that could easily conceal any weapons from the contact team. If EVANS was allowed to flee out of view or back into the house, I feared he would retrieve the firearm and fire upon our position.

While contacting EVANS, an older male began to exit the residence. EVANS began communicating with the male, referring to him as, "Unc." At the time, the contact team ordered the other male to remain in the residence as we continued to negotiate with EVANS. This however caused great concern to me, confirming there were still an unknown number of occupants still in the residence. While our attention was focused on EVANS, it was possible an accomplice or family member could fire upon us to free or prevent the arrest of EVANS. The rapidly evolving and dynamic situation caused more exigency to safely detain EVANS versus if he was confirmed the only occupant in the direct area.

After multiple attempts to de-escalate with verbal commands and the presence of our contact team, EVANS continued to actively resist arrest while being armed. At approximately 0020 hours, the contact team deployed a KEW beanbag round to gain compliance from EVANS.

EVANS fell to the ground following the beanbag deployment. My view became obstructed by the parked vehicle in the driveway. I moved my position with my PSD to the passenger side of the patrol car. EVANS refused to surrender or comply with commands. I could see his hands were empty as he held them near his head. I could not see his rear waist or anything past the parked vehicle and retaining wall. After gaining no compliance in my attempt to give him orders, other officers began giving warnings to EVANS. I maintained my position with my PSD.

At approximately 0028 hours, EVANS sat up and faced the team. He still refused to walk back to officers or comply with any commands. EVANS became more agitated began to posture towards standing back up. The initial effects of the first KEW round appeared to wear off and EVANS became more confrontational. He sat up with his back facing the retaining wall. A plan was established to utilize a second beanbag KEW round in conjunction with my PSD to apprehend EVANS. I deployed my PSD on his bite command for the following reasons:

SEVERITY OF THE CRIME:

There was probable cause to arrest EVANS for felony assault with a deadly weapon, firearm, against two people.

IMMEDIACY OF THE THREAT:

EVANS was believed to be armed or near a firearm. EVANS was wanted for a violent felony and refused to comply while outside of the residence. If allowed to flee or return to the residence, EVANS could fire upon officers, occupants of the residence, or other citizens that were gathering in the neighborhood due to the large police presence. It was determined EVANS had a domestic relationship to one of the victims, causing further exigency to arrest EVANS to prevent further domestic violence against the victim.

ACTIVE RESISTANCE:

EVANS refused to follow verbal commands for ten minutes, remaining at the foot of the residence. EVANS refused to walk back to officers and away from any potential concealed weapons. EVANS had already been impacted with a KEW round and refused to surrender.

Assisting officers deployed a second beanbag KEW round to distract EVANS while my PSD was sent on his bite command. This was done specifically to give the dog the opportunity to reach EVANS before a weapon could be pulled, possibly causing the injury or death of my PSD. EVANS was impacted at the same time I gave the bite command. EVANS had his hands in front of him, however remained defiant. As my PSD approached EVANS, he pushed his left forearm out to fend off my PSD. My PSD engaged EVANS on his left forearm. For reasons unknown, my PSD failed to remain engaged with EVANS.

Despite having been impacted by a second KEW round, and the brief engagement with my PSD, EVANS refused to surrender. Based on EVANS continued active resistance and defiance towards the contact team, I did not feel safe having the contact team move forward without the PSD actively engaged with EVANS. For these reasons, I recalled my PSD to my location and called for a second PSD.

Canine Sergeant Dyemartin deployed his PSD. I transitioned my role to lethal cover and as part of the arrest team to support Sgt. Dyemartin.

The second PSD was deployed to apprehend EVANS along with a third KEW beanbag round. Canine Sgt. Dyemartin's PSD successfully apprehended EVANS. See his report for further.

The contact team moved up, maintaining lethal cover on the house. I pointed my firearm at EVANS as we approached in the safest manner possible. Once we reached his position, I holstered my firearm and immediately grabbed EVANS' right arm. I pulled EVANS onto his stomach, pulling his right arm back and forcing his right shoulder down. I placed my knee briefly on his right shoulder to maintain control of his torso. As other officers held EVANS' torso, I relieved pressure from my knee off his shoulder. Assisting officers placed handcuffs on his right wrist.

As part of the canine unit, I carry an "Out Stick." It is a metal bar with a ball on the end. It is used to induce a gag or relaxing of the mouth on a PSD as a form of removal from a bite. Once officers had control of the right arm, I assisted Canine Sgt. Dyemartin by placing my out stick in his PSD's mouth, assisting in removing the PSD from EVANS' left forearm. Officers placed handcuffs on EVANS's left wrist. I called for officers to do a weapons pat before moving EVANS from the front of the house. No weapons were located directly on his person.

The arrest team retreated to the patrol vehicles with EVANS. I assisted with conducting more verbal call outs to the remaining occupants using my Public Address (PA) system. A total of three more residents exited the location. All three complied with commands and were safely detained without any force.

I assisted with the safety clearing of the residence and detached garage. No other occupants were located inside.

My BWC was on and recording during the incident.

REPORT NARRATIVE

OFFICER'S STATEMENT:

On Thursday, October 24, 2024 at 2318 hours, I was dispatched to 6461 Duluth Avenue in the City of San Diego to assist with an assault with a deadly weapon (firearm) radio call where the suspect pointed a firearm at the reporting party/victim. I was on duty, wearing my San Diego Police Department patrol uniform and driving a marked patrol vehicle.

The suspect was later identified as MARCUS GLENN DERRELL EVANS (Date of Birth: 03/23/1993) from a previous booking photograph.

I arrived on scene and retrieved my department issued rifle because the EVANS was seen with a firearm and threatened someone with a firearm.

A plan was formulated, and an arrest team was created to take EVANS into custody. Officers moved forward and staged in front of the residence to conduct callouts. Officers conducted callouts for EVANS to come out of his residence at 6461 Duluth Avenue. Once EVANS exited the residence. A high-risk pedestrian stop was initiated because the violent nature of the radio call and it was undetermined if EVANS still had the firearm hidden in his shorts. I pointed my rifle at EVANS as lethal coverage to protect myself and the officers around me. EVANS did not comply with officers' commands to peacefully surrender and was impacted with a bean bag shotgun and bitten by a police service dog. While less lethal tactics were deployed on EVANS, I maintained my lethal coverage on EVANS with my rifle until he was taken into custody and placed into handcuffs.

I assisted with clearing the residence making sure there were no other victim(s) or suspect(s) inside the residence.

Once the residence was cleared, I immediately left the scene while the investigation was still on going to assist in a high priority radio call.

FACTS ESTABLISHING ELEMENT(S) OF THE MOST SERIOUS OFFENSE AND IDENTIFICATION OF SUSPECT:

On 10/24/2025 I was on patrol in the City of San Diego. I was wearing full police uniform and driving a marked patrol vehicle. At approximately 2318 hours, I responded to a radio call at [redacted] Duluth Avenue, San Diego 92114 for an individual who was threatening others with a firearm. The reporting party, later identified via her California driver's license as [redacted] stated that a male had produced a handgun and racked it. [redacted] also stated that a female at the location named [redacted] had been beat up by her ex-boyfriend.

Upon my arrival on scene, I met with [redacted] and two other females at 6400 Skyline Drive. The females were identified via their California ID photographs as [redacted] and [redacted]

[redacted] stated she had been on Facetime with [redacted] and witnessed her getting beat up by her ex-boyfriend, later identified as Marcus Evans. [redacted] confirmed she had been in a dating relationship with with Evans; however, she refused to provide further information regarding when and for how long.

[redacted] stated [redacted] picked her up and they drove to [redacted] Duluth Avenue to help [redacted]

When they arrived at the residence, a further altercation ensued between Evans, [redacted] and [redacted] stated Evans retrieved a chrome handgun, racked it, and pointed it at herself and [redacted] from approximately 40 feet away.

[redacted] and [redacted] positively identified Evans to officers via a prior booking photograph.

A contact team of SDPD patrol officers and canine officers was assembled and a plan created to contact Evans. Officers conducted a contain and callout at the residence. Evans exited the residence and was non-compliant. Evans was told that he was under arrest. Evens refused officer's commands to keep his hands visible and walk towards officers. Evans protested officer's directions and said that it was his house and he was not going to comply with officer's orders. For the next 15 minutes, Evans continued to defy officer's orders to show his hands and surrender. After multiple commands and canine warnings, he was impacted three times with a less lethal beanbag shotgun and apprehended with a canine.

Evans was placed under arrest for 245(a)(2) PC - Assault with Firearm on Person, 243(e)(1) PC - Battery: Spouse/Ex-Spouse, and 148(a)(1) PC - Obstruct/Resist Peace Officer.

Evans was transported to UCSD East Campus Hospital for jail clearance and later booked into San Diego Central Jail without incident.

INVESTIGATION:

I was assigned this case on October 25, 2024. I read all the reports attached to the case. I conducted the above listed background check on the suspect and victim for prior domestic violence incidents, other indicators of high victim risk, and other required cross-reporting.

I viewed the photographic evidence stored in Evidence.com.

In reading the report and watching the BWC I learned the victim [redacted] was uncooperative and did not want police intervention. No phone number for her was listed or provided.

I called [redacted] and spoke with her. She stated she no longer wanted to be involved in the situation. She stated she did not wish to participate in the investigation. I watched the BWC footage of her statement to Officer Johnson #1644. On BWC [redacted] essentially stated the following:

PARAPHRASED STATEMENT OF [redacted] (VICTIM/WITNESS):

My sister [redacted] called me because [redacted] called her. She was on the phone and this man (Evans) was whooping [redacted] ass on the phone with a pole and was trying to stab her. With a crowbar or something, I don't know. So, we came over here, lifted the garage, and said "Ok friend c'mon". He wasn't letting her leave. He was saying how he was going to kill himself or he was going to stab himself.

And then I got out of my car and said "C'mon friend let's go". Then he pulled his gun out and cocked his pistol. He pointed the gun at my sister and me. I don't know his name.

When he pulled the gun out, he didn't say anything. I couldn't hear him from that distance. I literally heard him cock the pistol and point it at me and my sister. He was in the garage. And there was light in the garage. We moved and got out of his eyesight. Then he came down to my car, fought my sister and my friend. They tussled on my car. I got out of my car and told him to get the fuck off my sister. Then he said, "What're you gonna do?" and tried to square up with me. I called the police.

I saw the gun was a handgun. It was chrome, that's how I saw it.

INVESTIGATION CONTINUED:

The interview took place at 6400 Skyline Avenue in San Diego. While at this location [redacted] estimated for officers the distance she was from Evans when he produced the firearm. I later went to the location to view the distance based on [redacted] statement. I estimated the distance to be approximately 50-60 feet.

I contacted [redacted] also stated she no longer wanted to be involved and did not wish to participate in the investigation. She stated she does not wish to pursue charges against Evans. I watched the BWC footage of her statement to Officer Burns #1948. On BWC [redacted] essentially stated the following:

PARAPHRASED STATEMENT OF [redacted] (WITNESS/VICTIM):

My friend ([redacted] called me on the phone (Facetime). She was telling me about what's going on. They ([redacted] and Evans) were having a little dispute. He was asking me questions about [redacted] and I was telling him "No she's not doing this, not doing this." Then I watched this man attack my friend with a pole in his hand. I listened to her scream on the phone and say "Help me."

Me and my sister went to the house. We pulled up and were waiting for [redacted] to come out with her stuff. He comes up and cocks it. I just came to get my friend. He came to the car and started to get aggressive and pushed me down in the ground. We started fighting. He pulled the gun on me earlier when he was in the garage. I don't know what he did with it, but he came outside with her to put her belongings in the car.

All I know is there was a gun pulled out on me. I couldn't see if he pointed it at me because I couldn't see from that distance. All I heard was a sound like a gun loading and that's it. That's all I'm telling you. I was in the street, and from the garage all I heard was the sound.

([redacted] then clarified what she witnessed on the Facetime between [redacted] and Evans)

She wasn't doing anything; she was just sitting on the phone. Next thing I know all I see is her phone start going back and forth and I listened to her scream on the phone. Then I see him standing over her with something metal in his hand. It was pointy at the end, so he was going to stab her. He put it down after I told him. It was not a knife; it was like a piece of tool. It was rusty and brown, and it was pointy. It's in the garage. I watched him beat her on Facetime, and right now too.

([redacted] then clarified her statement regarding the incident at the garage)

When we pulled up [redacted] and Marcus were inside the garage. He opened the garage, and they were standing inside. I told [redacted] to come out so we can go. Marcus closed the garage door. [redacted] opened it up again to come out and he started following her out. He was holding onto her, and she was telling him to let go. He started bringing her stuff down to the car for her. She told him not to come to the car and I also told him not to come to the car. So, he was preventing her from coming to the car but also helping her bring her stuff to the car. It doesn't make sense. You don't even know. I told him to just leave her stuff right there and that's when he started approaching us.

He was putting her stuff in the car. He was pushing on her and getting in her face. She was trying to defend herself and push him out of her face. Then he started to come toward me. She was trying to get him away from me because she already knows I'm gonna swing. That's when we ended up tussling on my sister's car. He knocked me down and my friend was on top of me trying to get him off me.

I did not see the gun. I can't see that far.

Evans did not have any injuries, which appears inconsistent with [redacted]'s statement that [redacted] was beaten with a crow bar type object.

No contact information was available for [redacted] When I spoke with [redacted] she provided me with the number of [redacted] for [redacted] I called the number; however, my phone call went unanswered. I left a voicemail requesting a call back.

In reading the reports I learned Haynes' statement was not documented. I watched the BWC of Officer Burns and Officer Arreguin #1732, who both spoke with [redacted] On BWC she essentially stated the following:

PARAPHRASED STATEMENT OF [redacted] (VICTIM):

There was an altercation earlier. I was pushing him off since he was going toward my best friend. All I heard was a gun cock back. He did not point a firearm at me. I did not see a gun.

Marcus was my boyfriend. We got into a fight, but it was not physical. It was my fault. I was aggressive. We got into an altercation and then he came out to help me put my stuff in the car.

We got into it more and he pushed [redacted] to the ground. I probably hit him, but I don't remember.

I do not want to press charges against him.

INVESTIGATION CONTINUED:

I learned through watching the BWC that [redacted] used to live at [redacted] with Evans but has since moved out. No updated address was listed for [redacted] I drove to [redacted], which is the listed address of [redacted] in an attempt to locate [redacted] I knocked on the door and identified myself as a San Diego Police Department detective. Someone told me behind a closed door that [redacted] was not home, and [redacted] did not live there. She refused to open the door for me. I called [redacted] and she confirmed [redacted] does not live with her and she did not know her address.

I drove to [redacted], which is the listed address of [redacted] in another attempt to locate [redacted] An older woman answered the door who stated [redacted] was not home and [redacted] did not live at the address. She did not know where [redacted] lives. I called [redacted] and she confirmed [redacted] did not live with her and she did not know where she lived.

I conducted a check of [redacted] through law enforcement data bases and located an old address of [redacted] at [redacted]. [redacted] had reported the address in 2018. I mailed [redacted] a brochure of services through Your Safe Place as well as my business card and a note requesting contact.

As of the writing of this report I have not been able to contact [redacted]

SCENE DESCRIPTION:

I drove to the incident address, [redacted] Duluth Avenue. The residence is a two-story home with a detached garage to the east. I noticed the driveway is sloped up and to the left when looking at the home from the street. The driveway is approximately 30-35 feet long and leads to a garage. The view is slightly obstructed by a fence to the east and largely obstructed by a large SUV parked in the driveway. I noticed while watching the BWC the SUV was in the driveway at the time of the incident. Based on these facts and the fact it was dark at the time of the incident make it unlikely [redacted] would have been able to see Evans pull a firearm from the distance she reported.

I took photographs of the house and later uploaded them to evidence.com

I did not locate any cameras or other witnesses to the incident.

CONCLUSION:

☒ Based on the officer's report, statements of those involved, and my follow up investigation, I am forwarding this case to the City Attorney requesting the suspect be charged with the charges listed on page one of the report.

☐ Based on the officer's report, statements of those involved, and my follow up investigation, I am requesting a Notify Warrant be issued for this suspect.
