REPORT NARRATIVESYNOPSIS:

On November 1, 2025, at approximately 1547 hours, Jovante Hall-Johnson broke into his ex-girlfriend, [REDACTED] apartment located at [REDACTED] Wilson Ave Apt [REDACTED] San Diego, CA, 92116. [REDACTED] reported he had been harassing her by showing up about 10 times in the last three weeks and she felt threatened. When officers arrived and saw Hall-Johnson, they ordered him to stop. Hall-Johnson ran past officers for about 20 yards before being pursued and detained. After handcuffing him, Hall-Johnson broke free from officers and again tried to flee. He was taken to the ground and Officer Agerbeek sustained a small abrasion and rash to her right arm from the fall to the ground while preventing Hall-Johnson's escape.

Hall-Johnson was injured during the arrest and was transported to Scripps Mercy Hospital for treatment.

Officers stayed with Hall-Johnson until he could be booked into San Diego Central Jail for the violations of 602(m) PC - Trespass, 646.9 (A) - PC - Stalking, 148 (a)(1) PC, Resisting Arrest, and 69 PC - Resisting Arrest with violence.

ORIGIN:

On November 1, 2025, at approximately 1620 hours, I was on duty in full police uniform and operating a marked patrol vehicle. I responded to a report of a burglary in progress at [REDACTED] Wilson Ave Apt [REDACTED] in San Diego, CA, 92116.

BACKGROUND:

[REDACTED] and Hall-Johnson dated for about 6 years and they have no children in common. According to [REDACTED] they broke up around May of 2025 and do not live together. [REDACTED]

INVESTIGATION:

I called the reporting party, [REDACTED] and took her statement while enroute to her address.

Paraphrased Statement of [REDACTED] (Victim):

I just put up cameras in my apartment and at about 1547 hours, I saw Jovante Hall-Johnson break into my place. He does not have permission to be there, he used to stay with me off and on, but we broke up 6 months ago. He covered the cameras so I cannot tell if he is still there.

Investigation Cont.:

Officers arrived and set up a perimeter. Officer Robinson (1803) went to the alley side, and Officers Engle (7621), Kochsiek (7697) approached from the front of the complex towards the apartment. Officer Kochsiek saw Hall-Johnson coming from the second-floor landing by apartment [REDACTED]. There is only one other apartment door on that landing. Hall-Johnson ran past the officers and towards Wilson Street where he was intercepted by Officer Engle. Officer Engle ordered Hall-Johnson to stop, but he did not. Hall-Johnson made it about 20 yards away before he tripped on his shoes and fell. Officers were able to detain Hall-Johnson in handcuffs while he was on the ground. While Officers Engle and Agerbeek (3871) were helping Hall-Johnson up from the ground, he broke free from their grip and again tried to flee. Hall-Johnson made it a couple feet before Officer Agerbeek was able to grab a hold of him and take him to the ground to prevent his escape. During the fall, Hall-Johnson sustained a broken right ankle. Officer Agerbeek received a small laceration to her right arm as well as some road rash. Officer Agerbeek stated she sustained the injuries from Hall-Johnson falling on her as she attempted to stop him from escaping.

Officer Kochsiek (7697) took photographs of Officer Agerbeek and later uploaded them to Evidence.com.

Officer Frey (1810) took photographs of Hall-Johnson and later uploaded them to Evidence.com. While searching Hall-Johnson, Officer Frey located a screwdriver and two-house keys. I later tried the house keys on the apartment and saw one worked for the main front door, and one worked for the bottom lock of the front security door, but neither worked on the deadbolt. I saw a small hole in the metal screen and was later able to use the screwdriver to push the deadbolt thumb turn down and unlock the door.

I called [REDACTED] who was about 20 minutes away. She told me I could go into the apartment to look around. I entered the apartment and saw it was in good order. I saw a white trash bag of folded men's clothing in the living room next to a couch and a pair of men's shoes. There were two bedrooms, one child's room and [REDACTED] bedroom. There were only women's clothing in [REDACTED] bedroom, and I only located mail and paperwork with [REDACTED] name on it and a second, unrelated male. There was only one toothbrush in the bathroom.

I also observed a camera in the living room that was covered by a piece of paper. I checked a large amount of mail in the apartment but did not locate any mail or any other item to indicate Hall-Johnson lived at the location.

While waiting for [REDACTED] I contacted Hall-Johnson, who was being treated by medics. I read him the Miranda Admonishment per my PD145. Hall-Johnson stated "Yes" and "Yes" to questions one and two.

Paraphrased Post Miranda Statement of Hall-Johnson (Arrestee):

I live at this apartment. I have keys for the place. I have lived here for two years. She is mad because she found out I cheated on her. My clothes are in the apartment and in the garage. I was last here a few days ago. I blocked the cameras so she would not be mad at me, I just wanted to grab my clothes. She is lying because she is upset at me. That is the reason I ran.

Investigation Cont.:

[REDACTED] arrived home from work and I obtained her statement.

Paraphrased Statement of [REDACTED] (Victim):

I do not have any extra keys to the house, just my stepmom has one. I do not know how he has keys to my door. I don't think he took anything. I don't think he would. He does not live here; he has stayed here but it's been over six months since he has. He has come over about 10 times in the last three weeks, yelling at the door, ringing it. I took videos of him being at my place harassing me. I feel threatened by him showing up and breaking into my place. The minute I get home, I have to lock my door because I do not know if he will be here.

Investigation Cont.:

[REDACTED] showed me the security video and I saw Hall-Johnson enter the apartment, I do not see the garbage bag of clothes in his hands in this video.

I sent [REDACTED] a link to Evidence.com for her to upload all videos she had related to Hall-Johnson showing up throughout the last three weeks and the camera footage for today.

[REDACTED] showed me the garage and stated the bin was clothing for Hall-Johnson that had been there from a couple of years, I also saw several pair of men shoes. There was a couch that also appeared to be slept in. [REDACTED] stated the lock does not work but she is not aware of Hall-Johnson sleeping there.

I contacted two neighbors, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. They both stated they believe [REDACTED] lived with a male based on regularly seeing a male coming out of the apartment, even over the last couple of weeks.

I requested an Emergency Protective Order which was issued by the Honorable Campos at 1725 hours.

Hall-Johnson was transported to Scripps Mercy Hospital where he was admitted. A medical evaluation by doctors determined Hall-Johnson would require surgery due to two broken bones in his right ankle.

While at Scripps Mercy, I confirmed Hall-Johnson remembered the Miranda advisement. He stated he did.

Paraphrased Statement of Hall-Johnson (Arrestee):

I live there. She is just upset because I cheated on her. She is saying I stalked her, but we had sex a couple days ago. How could I be stalking her. Yeah, I should not have run from police, but I got scared. I have messages from her telling me to get my stuff. I do not consent to you looking at my phone.

Investigation Cont.:

Domestic Violence Detective Duncan (7552) arrived at the hospital and interviewed Hall-Johnson.

Based on the statements of both parties and the evidence, I determined Hall-Johnson had violated 602(m) PC - Trespass, 646.9 (A) - PC - Stalking, 148 (a)(1) PC, Resisting Arrest, and 69 PC - Resisting Arrest with violence.

Due to Hall-Johnson's medical condition, he was not able to leave the hospital and at the time of this report, Hall-Johnson is still pending being booked into the San Diego Central Jail.

My BWC was on and a RIPA was completed.

EVIDENCE:

I impounded the Screwdriver at police headquarters under barcode- 11605184.

INJURIES:

Hall-Johnson sustained two broken bones after force was used when he tried to escape.

PROPERTY DAMAGE:

REPORT NARRATIVEOFFICER'S STATEMENT:

On 11-01-2025 I was in full patrol uniform driving a marked San Diego Police Department patrol vehicle. At approximately 1616 hours, I responded to a radio call of a burglary at [REDACTED] Wilson Avenue Apt [REDACTED] called police and reported that her ex-boyfriend, Jovante Johnson, had broken into her apartment. [REDACTED] told police that she had the locks to her apartment changed recently and she installed a camera inside, and could see Johnson inside of her apartment on the camera. [REDACTED] explained that Johnson did not live there and did not have a reason to be there.

Johnson was described as a Black male, 5'6" tall, heavy, wearing a black Nike shirt, and blue shorts. I conducted a records check of Johnson prior to arriving on scene. I saw pictures of Johnson and saw what his face looked like, including a distinctive tattoo on his face above the right eyebrow.

I arrived on scene. I approached the apartment complex from the front gate, which was hanging open. A male, I recognized as Johnson, walked toward me from inside the apartment complex. I said, "Hey, stop!" Johnson's facial expression looked shocked, and immediately looked over my shoulder and started to run. Johnson pushed past me and knocked over a trashcan I was standing next to, to run past me. Johnson ran westbound to the other side of the street. Johnson tripped twice. I yelled at Johnson to stop, identified myself as law enforcement, and yelled at him that he was under arrest. I yelled at Johnson to get on the ground. Johnson stood up after both times he tripped, in order to continue running. I grabbed Johnson and pulled him to the ground on the west curblane of [REDACTED] Wilson Avenue. I pulled Johnson's left hand behind his back and handcuffed him and double locked the handcuffs.

Johnson repeatedly yelled that his ex-girlfriend was just mad at him because he had cheated on her, and that he had a key to the apartment. After Johnson was handcuffed, I advised him we would help him stand up and not to run. I helped Johnson stand up, and he immediately turned away and tried to run. Johnson was taken to the ground on his stomach. I placed my right knee on his belt line to hold him on the ground and prevent him from trying to run for a third time. I held down his left arm with my hand.

REPORT NARRATIVEOFFICER'S STATEMENT:

On 11/1/2025 at 1616 hours, I responded to a report of a burglary in progress at the address of [REDACTED] Wilson Ave [REDACTED] in the City of San Diego. Prior to my arrival, Officer Dennard advised he was speaking with the victim and reporting party over the phone and confirmed the male suspect, Jovante HALL-JOHNSON, did not have permission to be inside of the residence, and did not live at the location. A photograph of JOHNSON was attached to the MPS call for reference which I reviewed prior to my arrival.

On arriving on the Wilson side of the residence, I joined Officer Engel who was approaching the apartment complex walkway and front gate, which was located along the south side of the property.

As Officer Engel walked towards the gate, I heard her provide several loud commands to a subject, later identified as Jovante HALL-JOHNSON through his California Driver's License. I also recognized this male as the same subject's photograph I reviewed prior to my arrival. At the same moment, I observed JOHNSON sprinting directly at Officer Engel. At the time, JOHNSON's left hand appeared to be concealed in or near a backpack he was running with towards Officer Engel and myself. As a result, I withdrew my handgun from its holster and began to raise it in the direction of JOHNSON. Prior to pointing at JOHNSON's person, I observed him push past Officer Engel and run northbound on Wilson Avenue. No firearm was pointed at JOHNSON's person, but was displayed in his immediate presence.

As JOHNSON attempted to run from the east side Wilson to the west side, he tripped and fell, but recovered, before standing and falling again. As JOHNSON stood for a second time, Officers Agerbeek, Engel, and myself made contact with JOHNSON. I used my physical strength and momentum by grabbing onto his waistline and pushing him forward and onto the ground. This resulted in JOHNSON falling onto his stomach. After JOHNSON had sprawled out, I used my strength with my right hand to maneuver his legs behind him, enabling additional officers to obtain positive control. Officers Agerbeek and Engel applied handcuffs and sat JOHNSON up.

After a few moments, Officers Engel and Agerbeek stood him onto his feet. Prior to doing so, JOHNSON was provided specific instructions to "not try and run away again." After being assisted to his feet, JOHNSON was able to break free from their control and attempted to run away again while handcuffed. JOHNSON was tackled by Officers Agerbeek and Engle after he appeared to trip again.

As JOHNSON made it to the ground and landed on his side, I used my physical to grab onto JOHNSON's left shoulder and push him onto his stomach. During this time, JOHNSON began yelling that he broke his ankle. I requested medical personnel who arrived on scene and rendered aid.

While medical personnel were on scene, I spoke with a witness by the name of [REDACTED] who lives at the residence where this incident occurred. I obtained the following statement.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED] (witness)

I heard my dog barking and a loud commotion outside. When I looked down, you all were in front of my car and had just tackled that guy. You all were speaking to him in a normal voice, but I couldn't tell what you were saying because it was quiet. By the time I came down, I saw him try to run away again and got tackled by the officers. I did really see or hear anything else.

OFFICER'S STATEMENT CONTINUED:

No information was obtained on scene.

REPORT NARRATIVEOFFICER'S STATEMENT:

On November 1, 2025, at approximately 1616 hours, I responded to a Burglary in Progress (459), located at [REDACTED] Wilson Avenue, Apartment [REDACTED]. I was in full uniform and driving a marked police vehicle while patrolling the city and county of San Diego.

Prior to our arrival, the reporting party, [REDACTED] advised police that her ex-boyfriend, Jovante JOHNSON, had broken into her residence and turned off her video surveillance cameras. [REDACTED] recently changed the locks to her apartment so JOHNSON would not be able to access the apartment.

Upon arrival, multiple officers were beginning to set a perimeter around the residence when a male, later positively identified as Jovante JOHNSON, began running westbound from the apartment complex onto Wilson Avenue. Despite officer's commands to stop, JOHNSON began running northbound on [REDACTED] Wilson Avenue. JOHNSON crossed the street, stumbled and fell in front of [REDACTED] Wilson Avenue. JOHNSON attempted to get up and continue running before Officer Kochsiek #7697 and Officer Engle #7621 were able to gain control of his upper body. While lying on his stomach, I gave JOHNSON multiple commands to let go of the backpack he was clenching onto and put his hands behind his back. I was able to use my physical force to get JOHNSON's right hand behind his back. Officer Engle #7621 placed JOHNSON into handcuffs that were applied per Department Policy.

Following the initial incident, I assisted JOHNSON into a seated position. Officer Engle #7621 and I then assisted in getting JOHNSON onto his feet before walking over to a patrol vehicle. Officer Engle #7621 told JOHNSON not to try and run away from law enforcement again. After taking a few steps, JOHNSON pulled away from Officer Engle's #7621 grip and attempted to run away while in handcuffs. I maintained grip on JOHNSON's arm and used my physical strength to pull JOHNSON down

SAN DIEGO COUNTY
INFORMATION FOR VICTIMS OF
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE/SEXUAL ASSAULT

SAN DIEGO POLICE DEPARTMENT'S INVESTIGATOR'S REPORT

DATE: 11/01/25

TIME: 1547 hours

LOCATION: [REDACTED] Wilson Avenue, San Diego, CA 92116

CHARGE: 646.9(A) PC/602 PC/69(A) PC

VICTIM: [REDACTED] (DOB: [REDACTED])

SUSPECT: HALL, Jovante (DOB: [REDACTED])

CASE CANCELLATION [REDACTED]

SYNOPSIS:

On November 1, 2025, at approximately 1547 hours, Jovante Hall entered his ex-girlfriend [REDACTED] apartment located at [REDACTED] Wilson Avenue in San Diego. [REDACTED] reported he had been harassing her by showing up about 10 times in the last three weeks and she felt threatened. When officers arrived and saw Hall-Johnson, they ordered him to stop. Hall ran and was apprehended after a short foot pursuit.

Hall was injured during the arrest and was transported to Scripps Mercy Hospital for treatment.

Hall was arrested for the above listed charges and released at the hospital where he was being treated for a broken ankle.

INVESTIGATION:

On 11/01/25, I was called out to investigate the incident.

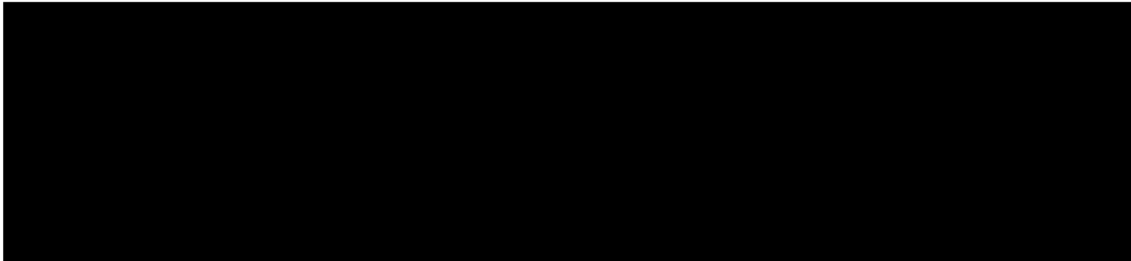

I responded to the scene located at [REDACTED] Wilson Avenue in San Diego. When I arrived, patrol had already cleared, and the victim was not available. I knocked on the front door however there was no answer. I attempted to contact her by telephone, but my phone call went unanswered. I was unable to leave a voicemail. I attempted to contact her again approximately 45 minutes later with no answer. I sent her a text message requesting a call back with my contact information and the contact information for Your Safe Place. I have not yet heard back.

I was informed the suspect was taken to Scripps's Mercy Hospital for medical attention. I responded to the hospital to speak with him. I was informed he had previously been advised of his rights and agreed to speak. As I began to question him, he told me he would not like to speak with me without a lawyer present. I did not question him further.

In reading the reports I learned two neighbors were spoken to by patrol officers. Both neighbors, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] stated they believed Hall lived at the residence because he is there often.

In a statement to patrol officers Hall also stated he lives at the residence but has not been there in a few days because [REDACTED] found out he has been cheating on her. He stated he was there to collect his clothing, which officers located inside the apartment. Officers also located keys to the apartment on his person.

I conducted a record check on [REDACTED] and Hall. I determined the following:

See Officer Dennard's report for further details regarding the victim and suspect statements.

There is no audio and video surveillance of the incident. There were no witnesses to the incident.

INJURIES:

Hall sustained a broken ankle while running from officers.

CONCLUSION:

After consulting with City Attorney and based on the evidence currently available and pending contact with the victim I do not believe I can prove this incident occurred as reported. I will not be forwarding this case for prosecution. This case may be forwarded to the City Attorney for prosecution should additional evidence or information come to light, or should future incidents occur.
